Apoc. 18. 23. Wise, if he will rejecte Mastry, let him at least some of those liberal arts; or if he will be mechanical, let him choose to some noble trade. Thy Merchants were the great men of the earth; said the Angel to Babylon, Apoc. 18. 23. Ay, but our Saviour is no Adventurer, neither is he so stockt to follow any such profession; once indeed he travelled into Egypt with Joseph and Mary; but to shew us that it was no prize, you may see Mary his mother steal him away by night, without further preparation: what, gone on a sudden? it seems there was no treasure to hide, no hangings to take down, no lands to secure, his mother needs do no more but lock the dores and away: what portion then is for the Lord of heaven? O sweet Jesu! thou must be content for us to hew sticks and stocks; besides which (after his coming out of Egypt, about the seventh year of his age, untill his baptisme by John, which was the thirtieth) we finde little else recorded in any Writers, profane or Ecclesiastical.

B Eloved Believers,
both you and I,
are infinitely behol-

his will and given all us his children great wealth , rich portions, and large Legacies, now in present possession; graces , and comforts, in unshaken expectation and assured reversion , perfection and eternall glory. Wee are greatly beholding to Iehova,
for his will directory, hortato-
ry, correctory , but most of all for his will consolatory , in which, he salves all our sores;

decines all our maladies, Psalm.

much beholding to the holy Authour of this sweet (though little) Book, who hath so pious-ly, painfully, and profitably pe-ruled the holy will of our hea-venly Father, and wisely sought and found out and put into our hands, the spirituall portion, and Soule-Legacies, given and be-queathed unto us by our best friend, many of which, most of scarce knew of, few sought and sued for them, and very few comfortable enjoyed and wise-ly and diligently used to the do-nors glory and their own good. Carelesse children, come often-times to be behoden unto their more carefull brethren and thri-

have, sue for all that is promised, and seek for all they heare
of: so is it here, wee carelesse,
negligent, poore and ill thriven
Christians, must be beholding
to this carefull, diligent, rich
and well thriven Authour, who obeys Pauls counsell, i. Cor. 12.

sently fulfill according to covenant , a petition is speedily drawne , to be preferred in the Court of heaven , and an Advocate prepared Jesus Christ the righteous . i. John 2.1. Suite (by prayer) begun , and in an eager pursuit continued , till the thing promised be performed .

This little Book , and private practise of the Author (who hath sued for all these Legacies , and in some good measure hath attained the same , and thereby is become spirituall rich) will sufficiently prove what I have spoken . Wee are much behol- den to this Author , for letting us see

see our Portions and Legacies
in our Fathers will, and letting us a worke both by penne and practise to sue for the same.

The volume is little, but the vertue contained in the same is great. The book is extraordinary, being altogether for application and practise. The scope and drift of it is, to furnish Believers with abundance of good; to free them from all sins inward, outward, secret, and open; To fill them with all graces in life,
power, and exercise; To bring them comfort in, and seasonable deliverance from all their troubles; To draw down upon their

their foules and bodies abundance of blessings of all sorts and natures: to give them full assurance of certaine and seafoable entrance into glory , and to give them fast hold of heaven.

There are many , I know, that will little regard it : the Prophane person will not like it, for it is full of holinesse: the carnall Protestant will not discern of it, nor relish it, for it is spirituall: the dissembling hypocrite will not well approve of it , for it will rob him of his Rimmon, slay his Mris, his Dalilah , his Herodias, his darling sin , it will tell quity, though never so pleasurable or profitable, farre away from his Tabernacles. But the honest hearted and sincere Believer will approve of it, prize it, use it, and profit by it.

And not to overcommend my commodity, as one desirous to make it more vendible and saleable (for neither I, nor its Authour, God is witnessse, ayme at any such thing, but at the spirituall good of their soules unto whom it shall come) this little Book, like a well filled lttle Apothecaries

What here I speake unto one Believer, I intend for all.

joy, and shall have a most certaine and full possession of afterwards. Wantest thou Grace, comfort, deliverance, blessing,

thou maist have them, to the great joy of thine heart, and content of thy Spirit.

what thou wantest , and thou shalt have it. Sucke these sweet and heavenly breasts of God

by the mouth of thy faith;
open these pipes and veines of the promises, which runne so full of mercy, grace, truth, comfort, joy and peace, for every Believer, by faith; and thou shalt bee satiate with every good thing.

Lest I should make too great a porch for this little house, and too great gates for this little City, I will conclude, with an exhortation to all my beloved brethren and sisters which are Believers, to perfect their faith
by application of the promises,

both of these in this sweet little Book, and of all others, contained in the Old and New Testament.

Suffer not Gods promises (as I may so lay) to milke themselves, doe you draw them, let not good rest with God, which you may have by believing and begging, to your great comfort and enriching, but take Gods commodities off his hand, trade with that wealthy Merchant in the farre Countrey, the Lord Jesus in heaven, for his rich commodities of graces and comforts, and glorious hopes, untill you be rich and wealthy; and for

To all true

for this purpose cause those two good factours, Faith
and Prayer, founded upon and quickned and confirmed by the preitious promises, alway to trade for you in heaven, untill
you come thither your selves. I would desire all Believers to make this their pocket booke
that it may sollicite and woe
them to prayer, make solid and firme their faith, increase their graces, comforts, and heavenly hopes, prepare them for enduring the stormes of trouble and tempests of temptations, and may encourage them in holy severance unto the end. Heb. 6.

12. Now brethren, my hearts desire is, that ye be not slothfull, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the Promises.

That you may be inheritours of them, it shall bee my daily prayer unto the Lord my God, to bestow upon your hearts to use all good meanes, for the attaining of the good, in these and other promises of God unto his people. That he would teach and enable you to meditate upon them diligently day and night, to believe them firmly; to apply them severally, particularly,

To all true

larly, personally, to sue for them earnestly by prayer constant and fervent, to waite for their promised accomplishment by patience, that so you may enjoy the good of them here and hereafter, which God in mercy
grant unto me, and also you.

mans child did fall equally in Adam: hence it comes to passe, that no man by nature is now in better esteem with God then other. Cain and Abel as children of the first Adam onely were equally miserable; the like may bee said of us all, for both Iewes and Gentiles are come under sin. Rom. 3. 9. And as the Psalmist saith, We all are gone out of the way, we are altogether become filthy, there is none righteous, no not one. Psal. 14. 3. O that men and women had their eyes enlightened, and judgements convinced of that woe ful plight in which naturally they are! Oh! were their hearts throughly loaden therewith, surely they would not long content themselves therein. The truth is, most in the world are spiritually blind, and cannot discerne their owne misery; and spiritually dead too, 1. John 5. 19. Eph. 2. 1. 5. and cannot be affected with it: The Holy Ghost

Ghost saith thus of them, Eph. 4. 18, 19. They walke in the vanity of their mind having their understanding dark-ned, and are strangers from the life of God, through the ignorance which is in them, because of the hardnessse of their hearts: who being past feeling, have given themselves unto wantonnesse, to worke all uncleaneſſe with greedinesse.
Such as these, are so farre from having any right to Gods promises, that for the present they are under the curse,
and consequently in the daint of all the plagues & threatniges in Gods Book.
Deut. 27. ult. Deut. 28. 56. 63. Wherefore let not such as yet challenge any comfort from the Promises, but let them rather labour to the uttermost
of their power, in using all good meanes to bee made capable and fit subjects for mercy revealed in the

made, and yet thou dye and bee damned notwithstanding? Pray fervently to God that hee would touch thy heart with griefe for all thy sins, and worke in thee a cleare apprehension of thine owne unworthiness, Acts 2.37. Luke 15.19. and that he would bestow faith on thee, that by it thou maist bee able to goe wholly out of thy selfe to God, through Iesus Christ for salvation.

Wee having departed from him who is the God of all grace and consolation, are fallen into an estate of all basenesse, desolation, and misery; and cannot bee recovered againe into the former estate of spirituall life and happiness, unlesse wee be brought againe to him who is the foundation of life and happiness, even the living God: and brought to him we can never be, but by Faith, Heb. 11.6. which is nothing else but the going out of the soule

a new principle of spirituall life and grace , which once in Adam we lost, and now need. The which worke of

mises; and being wrought in our hearts,
gives us a most sure right and interest unto all the promises of Grace. Rom. 10.

faith and patience are said to inherit
the promises , therefore we are called the heires of the promise: the promises
are as well ours , who truly believe,
as heaven it selfe is. Now by these heavenly Promises , God our Father hath engaged himselfe as a debitor to us his poore children for all things

ses in performance. As the soule is the life of the body, and faith the life of the soule, so are Gods promises the life of faith. For from whence hath faith his efficacy, but because it layes hold on the free promises: but from whence have the promises their strength? even from the constant nature of Iehovah, 2. Cor. 1. 20. who alwayes gives a being to his word. Desirest thou faith? then take notice of Gods promises: wouldst thou have thy faith like the light in the Lords Sanctuary never to goe out? then acquaint thy selfe with Gods Promises, know them well, meditate on them, conferre about them: let them be continually in thy mind, memory, heart and tongue. Heb. 11.* Oh the abundance of sweet cordiall comfort which all humble beleevers draw by faith out of every promise! Now beloved, these pretious Promises (our breasts of consolation) whercupon our happinesse so much depends, lye hid in the holy Scripture, as veines of gold in the earth. Isa. 66. 11. 12. Surely, those that search those mynes to bring to light these treasures, are worthy of great commédation. Wherefore I doubt not but the good paines of this blessed and faithfull servant of God will find good entertainment of all the children of the promises, that hope to entertaine them, who hath with great care and good evidence of spirituall understand-matters temporall, spirituall, and eter-nall. So that here is a medicine for e-sore. Read them carefully and ponder them seriously, and apply them faithfully. And I beseech the good Lord, who is the Authour of them, that by his holy Spirit he would make them

powerfull, and effectuall in us.

Rules

RVLES TO BE OBSERVED IN READING OF PROMISES.

WHATSOEVER Promise is made in generall to all the faithfull, every one must particularly apply it to themselves, as Gen. 3.14. the Messiah is promised to all, every one must apply him to themselves.

2. Whatsoever promise is made to any one of the faithfull (if there be not some particular reason which tyes it to his person, as was to Abraham for a sonne, and his seed to inherit the land of Canaan) every child of God hath right to it: as you may see, Ioshuah 1.5. I will not.

Rules to be observed

not faile thee, nor forsake thee. This every one may apply to themselves, as wee know the Holy Ghost applyes it, Heb.13.5. For he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Which teacheth us to doe the like in all the rest of the promises.

3. Under temporall promise to the Iewes, are set forth the excellent promised graces, which God will give to his people after the comming of Christ, Ezek.34.25,26,27.

4. When wee read the conditions of the promises, they are not like to the duties of the Law, made to the perfect fulfillers of them; the promises are Evangelicall, made to those which endeavour to keep them, and the maine conditions of them are faith.

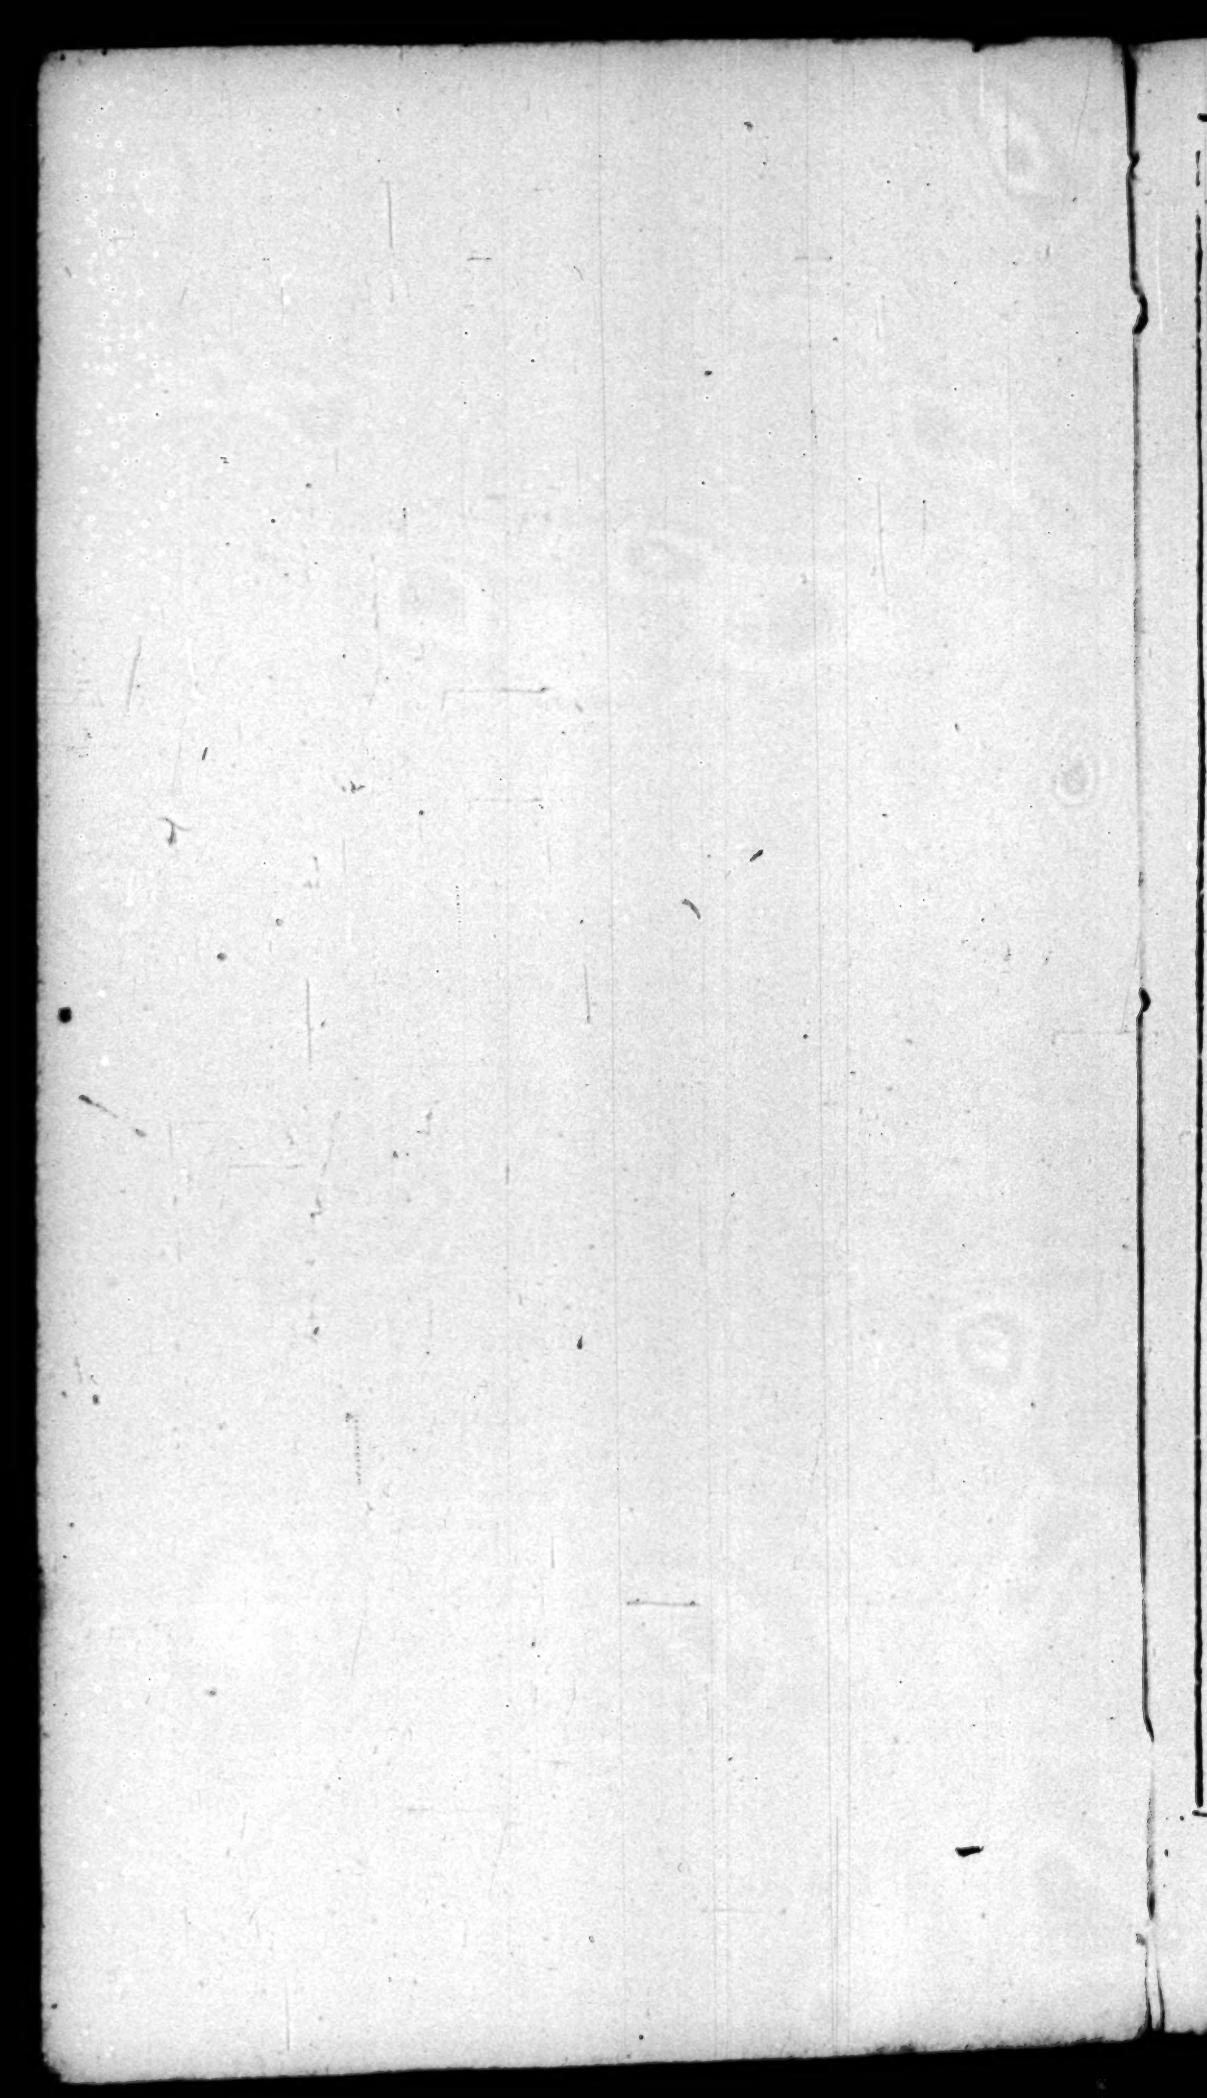

5. In all the promises for increase of grace, or meanes of grace, or for any earthly things, we must know wee shall have them so farre performed to us, as the

the Lord seeth good for us.

6. In our weak endeavourings to keep the promises, we must believe the performance to us, in, by, and through Christ; In whom all the promises of God are yea, and Amen, that is, as I conceive, confirmed and made good to us in him, 2. Cor. 1.20. when we can see nothing in our selves why they should be performed to us, even then we are to claime them for Christs sake; if thou be in Christ: for if thou beenot in him, no promise belongs to thee: but that threatenings and judgements are thy portion, and nothing else can wee claime as our due. Sorrow, weeping, and howling is that which God requireth of us, and not laying hand upon the comfortable promises, till wee hunger after Christ; which God grant wee may doe more and more, till we come to be satisfied with his image in the life to come.
Psal. 17. 15.

THE

THE FIRST LEGACY.

These promises I have observed for spirituall things.

FIRST ABOVT SINNE.

*If we find nothing in our selves
that may move God.*

When we find nothing in our selves that might move the Lord to have mercy, then apply these promises, Isai. 43.25. I, even I am he, that blotteth out

thy

thy transgression for mine own sake, & will not remember thy sinnes, Isai 44. 22. I have blotted out as a thicke cloud thy transgressions, and as a cloud thy sinnes: returne unto me, for I have redeemed thee.

Ier. 31. 34. I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sinne no more.

Ezek. 36. 25. I will sprinkle cleane
water upon you, and yee shall bee cleane
from all your filthinessse.

Isai. 57. 18. I have seene his wayes,
and will heale him, I will lead him also,
and restore comforts unto him, and to his mourners.

These promises are free, made by the Lord, not for any thing that is in man, as you may see, in Isaiah 43.
from the 22. verse, to the 25. for the Lord saith, They had not called upon him, but wearied the Lord, brought him no offering, yea wearied him with

with their sinnes ; and yet in the 25. verse hee saith , for his owne sake hee would forgive their sinnes.

These promises wee shall have alwayes need of , as at our conversion, so afterwards many times wee shall in our owne feeling finde nothing in our selves to perswade us of the pardon of our sinnes , then wee must flye to these free promises. When thou seest nothing in thy selfe why the Lord should pardon thy sinnes , and therefore doubt'st of the pardon of them, apply, I am he that puts away thy sinnes for mine owne sake.

When thy sinnes rise up as a cloud, that thou canst see nothing but them, apply, I haue put away thy sinnes as a cloud.

When thou fearest the multitude of thy sinnes , apply , You shall be cleane from all your sinnes.

THE II. LEGACY.

If we feare, God will remember our sinnes to punish them.

When wee fear, God will remember our sinnes before committed, to punish us for them, apply Ier. 31. 34. I will remember his sinne no more Ezek. 18. 22. His transgressions which hee hath committed shall not be mentioned to him, but in the righteousnesse which hee hath done, shall he live.

Ezek. 33. 16. None of his sinnes that he hath committed shall be mentioned to him.

TAB

THE III. LEGACY.

*If often finning cause thee
doubt of pardon.*

When thine often finning causeth thee to feare that God will not pardon thee, apply, Job. 33. 27. 28. 29. He looketh upon men, and if any say I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profiteth me not: hee will deliver his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. Loe all these things worketh God, oftentimes with man. Wherefore believe not Satan that perswades the contrary, nor let thy corruptions make thee bold to presume of pardon; for though God promise pardon, yet it is to the

penitent, not to the presumptuous, as vers. 27.

THE IV. LEGACY.

If thou despaire.

When thou art at the pits
brinke of despaire, and art dryed up with sorrow, then goe to some faithfull Preacher that is able to preach Christ unto thee, and apply these promises: Job. 33. 24, 25, 26. Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, deliver him from going downe to the pit, I have found a ransome. His flesh shall bee fresher then a childs, hee
shall returne to the dayes of his youth.
He shall pray unto God, and he shall be favourable unto him, and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto

man his righteousness.

Isai. 57. 19. I create the fruit of the lips, peace, peace, to him that is farre off, and to him that is neare, saith the Lord, and I will heale him.

When thou commest to the uttermost extremity for sinne, apply, I will have mercy on him, and deliver him, that he goe not downe to the pit.

When thou fearest that God or his Ministers will not speake peace unto thee, apply, I have received a reconciliation. I create the fruit of the lips to be peace, to them that are farre off, and to them that are neare.

When thy sorrowes have witheld thee up, apply, He shall returne as in the dayes of his youth, and his flesh shall be as the flesh of a child.

If in this estate thou fearest, God will not heare prayers for thee, apply, He shall pray to God, and he will be favourable to him.

When thou fearest thou shalt not be able to looke upon the Lord with joy, apply, Hee shall see his face with joy.

When thou seest not any thing in thy selfe, that shoulde cause thee not to believe this, apply, He will render to man his righteousness; which is (I thinke) Christs righteousness, for whose sake he will doe it.

THE V. LEGACY.

If thou findest sinne an heavy burden, and Satan pursuing.

When thou feelest sin an heavy burden, and Satan pursuing thee with many feares, by reason of the same, flye to Christ, and apply, Matth. 11. 28, 29. Come unto unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Mat. 1.21. He shall save his people from their sinnes.

Rom. 16. 20. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

Isai. 32. 2. And a man shall bee as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest, as rivers of waters in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rocke in a weary land. Thus doth Christ to the soule that flyes to him.

If Satan pursue thee, apply, He is an hiding place.

If stormes of temptations and afflictions doe arise, apply, He is a refuge against the tempest.

If thy soule bee ready to faint through weakenesse, apply, He is a river of water in a dry place, to revive thy spirits, and as the shadow of a great rocke, under which thou maist safely repose thy selfe. When thou findest thy sinnes very heavy , apply,

I will ease you.

When thou hast no rest in thy soule because of sinne , apply , You shall find rest to your soules. Hee shall save his people from their sinnes, both from the punishment and the power.

If thou fearest length of time in temptations, apply , The God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

THE VI. LEGACY.

If thou turne from sinne, and yet doubt of pardon.

When thou turnest from sin, and doubtest of the pardon of it, apply , Isai. i. 18.
Though

Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow, though they be red like crimson, they shall bee as wooll.

Isai. 55. 7. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him returne unto the Lord, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Micah. 7. 18, 19. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. He will turne againe, he will have compassion upon us, he will subdue our iniquities, and thou wilt cast all their sinnes into the depths of the sea. Prov. 21. 13. He that confesseth and forsaketh his sinnes, shall find mercy. 1. Ioh. 1. 9. If we confesse our sins, he is faithfull and just to forgive us our sinnes, sinnes, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse.

When thou seest thy loule of a sinfull colour, apply, Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as white as wool.

If thou fearest God will hardly be intreated, apply, He will have mercy, for he is ready to forgive.

If we feare that our sinnes have taken such strong hold upon us, as wee shall never get from them, apply, He will cleanse us from all our unrighteousnesse. Seeing God promiseth to be the cleaner, feare not the hardnesse of the worke.

T H E

THE VII. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have thy manifold rebellions subdued.

Vhen thou feelest many rebellions in thine heart and life, and wouldest have them not only pardoned, but subdued, apply, Hos.14.5. I will heale their backe-sliding. Which promise (as I thinke) containes thus much, that God will not only pardon, but heale us, and instead of rebellious hearts and lives, will give us obedient hearts and lives; for as healing followeth the curing of sicknesse: so obedience doth the curing of rebellion. Micah.7.19. He will subdue our iniquities.

When

Whenthou feelest sin very strong,
flye to this promise, and apply the strength of him that promiseth,against the strength of sinne: it is the Lord that hath promised to subdue it; what though Sinne and Satan joyne their force together, yet the Lord is stronger then all their force, wee need not doubt.

THE VIII. LEGACY.

If thy heart bee hard and full of corruption.

Vhen thou feelest thine heart hard, and full of corruption,apply,Ezek.
36. 26. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out

out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

Deut. 30. 6. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, that thou maist live.

When thou feelest thine heart worldly carnall, apply, I will circumcise thy heart. A new heart will I give thee.

When nothing will breake thine heart, apply the power of Iehovah, that hath promised to cure thee, in taking away thy stony heart.

T H E

THE IX. LEGACY.

If unbridled nature break out into passion.

Vhen thou canst not bridle nature, but it breakes forth into violent passions, to contention, apply, Isai. 11.6.
*The Wolfe also shall dwell with the Lambe, and the Leopard shall lye downne with the Kid, and the Calfe, and the young Lyon, & the fatling together, &
a little child shall lead them.* Such shall bee the power of the Gospell, that those which are by nature like Wolves and devouring beasts, shall dwell very peaceably: and if wee find our nature such, we must apply, the Wolfe shall dwell with the Lambe.

Micah

Micah. 7.19. He will subdue our ini-quities, and will cast all our sinnes into the depth of the sea: that which is cast into the Sea, as it appeareth not in sight, so wee cannot get it againe,
though wee would: so will God doe
by your sinnes, cast them out of his sight, so as wee shall not returne to them any more: presse him with his promise, and you shall find more then you thinke.

THE X. LEGACY.

If thou be in bondage to some sin.

Vhen thou feelest thy selfe in bondage to some sinne, apply, John 8.32.
You shall know the Truth, and the truth
shall make you free.

Rom. 6. 14. Sinne shall not have dominion

dominion you.

When thou feelest thy bondage that thou canst not doe good, or keep thy selfe from evill; apply, *The truth
shall make you free.*

If thy sinnes often prevaile against thee, apply, Sinne shall not have dominion over you.

Psal. 130.8. *He shall redeeme Israel
from all his iniquities.*

THE XI. LEGACY.

If thou fearest the breaking out of strong sinnes.

Vhen thou feelest some
sinne so strong in thee,
that thou fearest it will breake out to Gods dishonour, and the blemishing of Religion, apply, i.
Thess.

Thess. 5.23.24. That your whole spirit, soule and body may be preserved blamelesse unto the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ. Faithfull is he that calleth you, who also will doe it. That God which hath called thee, will keep thee blamelesse unto the comming of Christ: therefore use the meanes, and rest upon the Lords faithfulness which never faileth them which trust in him.

2. Thes. 3.3. But the Lord is faithfull, who shall stablish you and keepe you from evill.

1. Ioh. 1.9. If we confesse our sinnes, he is faithfull and just to forgive us our sinnes, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse. By cleansing (as I thinke) is meant not onely from the guilt of sinne, but the power of it, that the filthinesse of it shall not appeare in our lives and conversations. When sinne pursues thee hard to make thee fall, doe thou pursue the Lord with prayers, prayers, for performance of this promise, and doubt not of the issue.

Micah 7. 19. Hee will subdue our iniquities. And to these adde the prayer of Christ, John 17. 15. I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keepe them from the evill. Now what greater evill than sinne? therefore though thy prayers bee but weake against it, yet hee hath prayed that was alway heard, therefore fight and be sure of victory.

THE XII LEGACY.

When thou art stayed from finne by admonition.

When thou art stayed from finne by admonition, appy, Ezek. 3. 21. If thou warne the righteous righteous man, that the righteous sinne not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live because he is warned.

When any admonish thee, obey, and it shall bee life to thy soule, therefore receive the admonition, and apply, He shall live, because he is admonished.

THE XIII. LEGACY.

If thou fearest God will destroy thee for sin.

If thou fearest, God will destroy thee for thy sinnes, apply, Ezek. 18. 30. Turne your selves from all your transgressions, so iniquity shall not be your ruine.

Matth. 1. 21. He shall save his people from their sinnes.

When thou fearest the greatnessse or multitude multitude of thy sinnes will bee thy destruction, apply, Iniquity shall not be your ruine.

When thou seest no meanes of safetey, apply, He (that is, Christ) shall save his people from their sinnes.

THE XIV LEGACY.

If thou be tempted to uncleanness.

If thou be tempted to uncleannessse, apply, Prov. 2.16. Hee shall deliver thee from the strange woman.

i. Thes. 5. 24. Thy body shall bee kept blamelesse untill the comming of Christ.

T H E

THE XV. LEGACY.

*If thou canst not find out thy sin,
for which God corrects thee.*

If thou canst not find out thy sinne,
for which God correcteth thee,
apply, Job. 39.9. *If they bee tyed
with the cords of affliction, then will I shew them their worke, and their sins.*

A wise Father will not correct his child, but hee will shew him wherefore, how else should hee amend his fault? much more will the Lord. But we enjoy not many promises, because we sue not for them.

*Thus farre about Sin, the next
about Grace.*

THE

THE XVI. LEGACY.

If thou doubt of salvation.

IN doubt of salvation, apply, God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Sonne, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life, John 3. 16.

John 5. 24. Hee that beareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.

John 8. 51. If any man keepe my saying, he shall never see death.

John 11. 25. Hee that believeth in me, though hee were dead, yet shall hee live. And whosoever believeth in mee shall never see death.

If

If thou doubt that thou shalt perish, and not be saved, apply, Hee that believeth in Christ, shall not perish, but shall have everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation. Labour to believe these Promises, for that is required of thee, for the obtaining of what is promised.

THE XVII. LEGACY.

If thine heart bee as a wilderness, barren of good.

When thou findest thine heart as a wilderness barren of good, apply, Esai. 35. 1, 2.
The wilderness and the solitary place shall bee glad for them: and the desart shall rejoice, and blossom as the Rose, It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice

even

even with joy and singing.

This promise is made to the Church, and every member of it may apply it to themselves: therefore when thou feelest thine heart as a desart wildernesse, and wast ground, void of good, full of bryers and thornes of sinne, then know, thou shalt not only bring forth sweet smelling graces. like Roses, but also all abundance of them.

Pro. 11. 28. The righteous shal flourish as a branch. Pro. 13. 4. The soule of the diligent shall be made fat.

Hos. 14. 5. 6. I will be as the dew to Israel, he shall grow as the Lilly, and cast forth his roots like Lebanon. His branches shall spread, & his beauty shall be as the Olive tree & his smell as Lebanon.

When wee want meanes to make us fruitfull, apply, The Lord will be a dew to Israel.

When wee desire to flourishi and grow vp in grace, apply, He shall grow

as the Lilly, his branches shall spread.

If thou wouldest shine forth in the beauty of holynes, apply, His beauty shall be as the Olive-tree, and as the Lillies, whose glory is greater then Solomons in all his Royalty.

If thou wouldest have thy graces send forth a sweet smell, apply, His smell shall be as Lebanon.

If thou fearest the continuance of this estate, apply, He shal fasten his roots, as ahe trees of Lebanon.

It matters not how great our barrennesse be, when God will be a dew to us: it will quickly make us fruitfull, we shall bring forth fruits glorious to the sight as the Lilly, and as the Olive tree, and the sent of our graces shall be a sweet smelling savor, as the trees of Lebanon. Therefore though thou feelest thy heart yet barrē, & thou hast used means long, & yet art not fruitfull, still use the meanes, and beleieve, for therein did Abraham glorifie God

that hee beleaved above hope, that Sarab
should have a Son, whose wombe
was barren, and by yeeres past childbearing: so though thine heart remaine barren in thine own feeling, after long use of meanes, yet still follow seeking in the meanes, and believe, for we have
as sure promises, and as faithfull a performer, as Abraham had, Iesus Christ, yesterday, and to day, and the same for ever.

*John 7.38. He that believeth on me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of water
of life.*

T H E

THE XVIII. LEGACY.

If thou wantest holiness.

When thou art troubled for want of holiness, apply, Exod. 19. 6. You shall be an holy nation.

Deut. 28. 9. And the Lord shall establish thee an holy people unto himself.

The Lord will make thee holy; therefore Sion, nor Satan, nor wicked men cannot hinder thy holiness: for he that makes thee holy, is stronger then all, and doth what he will.

1. Thess. 5. 23. 24. The God of peace shall sanctify you throughout, in spirit, soule, and body. Faithfull is he which calleth you, which will also doe it.

THE XIX. L E G A C Y.

*When thou canst not offer
up any sacrifice.*

When thou canst not offer up any sacrifice to God of prayer or prayse, or thy selfe in sacrifice, apply, Exod. 19. 6. Yee shall bee unto mee a Kingdome of Priests. God promiseth that wee shall be Priests, that is, such as shall offer up sacrifice unto him, for that was the Priests office. Therefore when thou findest thy selfe unable to pray, or praise the Lord, or to offer up thy selfe to God, soule and body, strive in faith grounded on the promises, that he which commanded, hath also promised to make us able to doe it, for he hath hath said, We shall be Priests, Malac. i. xi. In every place incense shall bee offered to my name, and a pure offering, which is spoken of the believing Gentiles, therefore thou being one of them, shalt be able to offer up pure offerings.

THE XX. LEGACY.

When thou feelest but little grace.

When thou feelest little grace, knowledge, faith, love, repentance, all very little, apply, Job. 8.7. Though thy beginning be small, yet thy later end shall greatly increase.

Matth. 13.12. Whosoever hath, to him shall bee given; and hee shall have abundance.

Therefore let not thy small begin-wings discourage thee; but if thou canst prove thou hast some grace, then joyne faith and diligence together, and they will quickly make thee rich.

THE XXI. LEGACY.

When all thy graces are weake.

When thou findest all thy graces very weake, and no strength to performe any spirituall duty, either prayer, or fasting, or any other duty, then apply, Psal. 29. 11. The Lord will give strength unto his people. Isai. 40. 29. 31. He giveth power to the faint, and to them which have no might hee increaseth strength. They that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as Eagles they

they shall runne and not bee weary , they shall walke and not faint.

When thou feelest thy selfe faint,
stay thy selfe with this promise, Hee
gives strength to him that fainteth.

When thou feelest no power , apply, to him that hath no strength, he increaseth power. If thou hast lost thy power , then stay thy selfe with this,
they shall renew their strength.

If thou art ready to give over through wearinesse , then gather strength from this, They shall run, and not bee weary , and walke , and not bee faint.

And if thou findest not these promises performed unto thee , either thou endeavourest not to keepe the conditions, or else thou art negligent
in searching out the promises, or cold
insuing for them : the Lord will bee sought to for the performance.

Iai. 41. 10. I am thy God , I wil.

strengthen thee, yea I will helpe thee, yea
I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Isa. 26. 4. Trust thou in the Lord for ever, for in the Lord
Ichovah is everlasting strength.

To know there is strength in the Lord is no comfort, unlesse we know it shall be for us. Therefore since it is given for a comfort, it must include this promise, Thus the Lords strength for evermore shall bee employed for our good. Therefore when we want for either soule or body, we must fixe our confidence in him, who will not faile
us, if we seek unto him.

T H E

THE XXII. LEGACY.

When thy heart is dryed for want of Grace.

When thou feelest thy heart dryed up for want of grace that thou canst not send forth any water of grace in thy thoughts, words, and works, apply, Isa. 44.3. I will powre water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the drye ground.

Isai. 58. 11. The Lord shall satisfy thy soule in drought, and make fat thy bones, and thou shalt bee like a watered garden, and like a spring of waters, whose waters faile not.

Ier. 17.8. He shall be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreadeth out her

root

roots by theriver, and shall not see when heat commeth : but her leafe shall bee green, and shall not bee carefull in the yeare of drought, neither shall cease from yeilding fruit.

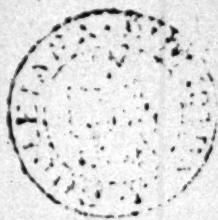

Ier.31.12. Their soule shall bee as a watered garden.

Iam.4.6. God giveth grace unto the humble.

Isa.35.6,7. In the wildernes shall waters break out, and streames in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a poole, and the thirsty land springs of waters. That is, the most barren heart shall abound with grace, according to that promise. Ioh.7.38. Out of their bellies shall flow rivers of the waters of Life.

Isa. 41. 17, 18. When the poore and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongues faile for thirst, I the Lord will heare them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them : I will open rivers in high high places: and fountaines in the midst of the valleyes: I will make the wildernesse a poole of water, and the drye land springs of water. I will plant in the wildernesse the Cedar, the Shittah-tree, and the Mirtle, and the Olive tree: I will set in the desart the Firre-tree, and the Pine, and the Box tree together. So now though thou feelest thy heart barren, know that God will bee thy Gardiner to thy barren heart, to make pooles, and plant pleasant grapes of graces; therefore seeing he taketh upon himselfe the worke, feare not the badnesse of the ground, for hee will make it good as a fruitfull garden.

T H B

THE XXIII. LEGACY.

If thou wantest the spirit.

IF thou feelest thou wantest the spirit of God, apply, Ezek. 36. 27. I will put my spirit within you.

Luke 11. 13. If yee then being evill, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that aske him.

Ioel 2. 28. 29. I will powre out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie, your old men shall dreame dreames, and your young men shall see visions, And also upon the servants, & upon the handmaids in those dayes will I powre out my spirit.

Ioh. 14. 16. 17. And I will pray the Father,

Father, and hee shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever: even the Spirit of truth, hee dwelleth in you, and shall be in you, I will not leave you comfortlesse, I will come to you.

When thou canst not pray thy selfe, stay thy selfe on these prayers, that Christ hath prayed, to the Father to give the Spirit, and he was heard in all hee prayed for, therefore thou maist claime it, though thy prayers bee but weake.

THE XXIV. LEGACY.

If looking on Gods love, thou canst not love God againe.

When thou lookest upon the great love of God unto thee, and canst not finde thine thine heart enlarged in loving God again, apply this promise, Deut. 30.9.

 I will circumcise thine heart, that thou maist love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.

THE XXV. LEGACY.

If thou canst not bring thine heart to delight in the Lord.

When thou canst not bring thine heart to delight in the Lord, apply, Isai. 41. 16.
Thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and glory in the holy one of Israel.

Psal. 89. 16. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

Iob. 22. 26. For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty.

Psal.

Psal. 33.21. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

When thou seeſt cause of rejoicing in the Lord , and yet canſt not move thine affections, apply, They ſhall rejoice in him.

If through many troubles and temptations, thou findest thy joyes often interrupted, apply, they ſhall rejoice continually in thy name.

T H E X X V I . L E G A C Y .

If thou feeleſt not Gods feare
in thine heart.

V V Hen wee feele not the feare of God, in our hearts, apply, Ier. 33.
40. I will put my feare in their hearts.

If

If we would have a reverent feare
of God, when we performe any holy duty, or at other times, as thou feelest thy need, so urge the Lord with this his promise, for he delights to be sued
to, upon his promise, by his servants, Ezek. 36.37. I will yet for this bee inquired of by the house of Israel to doe it for them.

THE XXVII. LEGACY.

*If thine heart will not praise
the Lord.*

Vhen thou canst not bring thine heart to praise the Lord, apply
Isa. 43.21. This people have I formed for my selfe, they shall shew forth my praise.
Joel 2.26. Yee shall eat in plenty, and bee

be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God.

Psal. 22. 29. They shall praise the Lord that seeke him.

When thou seest what great things God hath done for thee, and findest not thy self able to set forth his praise, apply, They shall set forth my praise.

When thou findest thy ingratefull heart not affected with the mercies thou enjoyest, so as they stirre thee not up to praise the Lord, apply, Hee shall eat and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord.

THE XXVIII. L E G A C Y.

If thou wantest wisdome.

When thou seest thy want of wisdome makes thee not walke like a Christian, so unblameably unblameably as thou ought , apply, Iam.1.5 . If any of you lacke wisdome, let him aske of God that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him.

When thou findest thou want' st
wisdome to improve thine afflictions
to the best advantage, or for the ordering of thy actions, occasions and course of life, to Gods glory and the good of others, and thy selfe, then faile not to aske wisdome, and doubt not of the obtaining of it.

THE XXIX. LEGACY.

If thou canst not understand Gods voyce.

Vhen thou canst not understand the voyce of
God

God in his word, or works, not knowing what to learne by them, apply, Isa. 35.5. The ears of the deaf shall bee unstopped. That is, those that were deafe, not understanding any thing, shall be made to heare, that is, to understand.

Ioh. 10. 16. Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold, them also I must bring, and they shall heare my voyce. Which is a promise to the Gentiles, that they shall understand the voyce of God.

THE XXX. L S G A C Y.

If thou canst not see into the mysteries of the Goffell.

IF thou canst not see into the divine mysteries of the Gospel, apply, Isa.

35.5. The eyes of the blind shall be opened. Isa.42.7. Hee shall open the eyes of the blind. Luk.4.18. Hee hath sent me to recover sight to the blind.

These places are what Christ will doe to his people, therefore wee need not feare our disease, seeing Christ is our Physician. If every creature that, for which it was ordained, then hee will surely doe that which hee was sent to doe of the Father, to give sight to the blind.

TH_E XXXI. LEGACY.

If thou seest a good way and hast no power to walke in it.

When thou seest a good way, and hast no power to walke in it, or art to performe any duty, duty, ordinary or extraordinary, and feelest no strength to walke in that way, apply, Ezek. 36. 72. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walke in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements, and doe them.

When thou lookest at the greatnessse of the duty which God commands, looke also at the largenesse of his promises for the keeping of them, and then thou wilt not be discouraged at it. What matters it what hee commands, seeing we have his promise?

If thou fearest the strictnesse of thy wayes that thou shal not bee able to walke in them, though thou step into them sometimes, strengthen thy faith in this promise, I will give thee my Spirit to cause thee to walke in my wayes. Can Sinne or Satan then resist Nay surely the Spirit is stronger, and greater is hee that is in us, then those that are against us. And when wee see great

great duties which God commands, and feare wee shall want strength to doe them, apply, Hee hath said, You shall keep my judgements and doe them.

Isai. 40.31. They shall runne, and not be weary, they shall walke and not bee faint. That is, Those which of themselves could not step one step, shall be able to runne swiftly in the wayes of God.

THE XXXII. LEGACY.

If thou wantest memory.

Vhen thou wantest memory to remember the Word of God, apply, Ioh. 14.26. But the Comforter which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send send in my name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

THE XXXIII. LEGACY.

When thou seeſt thine ignorance.

VVhen thou seeſt thine ignorance , and feareſt thou ſhalt not bee able to glorify God as thou mightest , if thou had'ſt more knowledge, stirre up thy ſelfe to desire and apply , Ier. 31. 33. 34. Thus ſaith the Lord, I will put my Law in their inward parts , and write it in their hearts , and they ſhall all know me , ſaith the Lord , from the greatest to the leaſt. Hosea 2.20. Thou ſhalt know the Lord. Prov. 1.23. I will powre out my Spirit unto you, I will make knowne my words unto you.

Psal. 25. 9. 12. 14. The meek will bee guide in Iudgement: and the meek will be teach his way. What man is hee that feareth the Lord? him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse. The secret of the Lord is with them that feare him: and he will shew them his covenant.

Prov. 24. 9. 11, 12, 13. If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for treasures: Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgement, and equity, yea every good path. Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee, to deliver thee from the way of the evill man, from the man that speaketh froward things: who leave the paths of uprightness, to walke in the wayes of darkness. Isai. 11. 9. The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord. Prov. 8. 17. Those that seek me early shall find me. Isai. 35. 8. The foole shall not erre.

John

John. 7.17. If any man will doe his will,
he shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God, or whether I speak of my selfe.

Isai. 32. 3,4. The eyes of them that see shall not be dimme, and the eares of them that heare shall hearken The heart also
of the rash, shall understand knowledge.

When thou thinkest of the great mystery of God manifest in the flesh,
and of one divine essence , and three persons , and seest thy owne inability to conceive of this great God, apply,
They shall all know the Lord. The heart of the foole shall understand.

When wee feare, God will not reveale his will to us, apply, I will powre out my mind to you. Hee will teach the humble his wayes. He will teach him the way he shall chuse.

If thou fearest that though God
reveale his will , yet thy ignorance is such, as thou shalt not bee able to understand it , apply, I will cause you to understand

understand. Thou shalt understand judgement, righteousness, equity, and every good path.

If thou fearest, men will draw thee away to error, apply, Counself shall preserve thee, and understanding shall keep thee, and deliver thee from the evill way, and from the man that speaketh froward things, and from them that leave the wayes of righteousness, to walke in the wayes of darknesse. The fooles shall not erre. He shall know the doctrine whether it be of God.

THE XXXIV. LEGACY.

If thou desirest grace and art not satisfied.

IF thou desirest Grace, and thy desires are not satisfied, apply, Psalme

35. 7. Delight thy selfe also in the Lord, and he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.

Psal. 145. 19. He will fulfill the desires of them that feare him.

Pl. 81. 10. Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

Match. 5. 6. Blessed are they which doe hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Prov. 10. 24. The desire of the righteous shall be granted.

Dost thou desire grace? fearest thou God will not grant thy desires? apply, He shall give thee thy hearts desire, he will fulfill thy desire.

Fearest thou that if he give grace, it wil be but a little, apply, open thy mouth wide, & I will fill it. Thou shalt be filled.

Isai. 30. 18. Blessed are all they which waite for him. Hee will certainly have mercy upon thee at the voyce of thy cry, when he heareth he will answer.

When thou beginnest to faint with waiting, apply, He will certainly have mercy upon thee.

THE XXXV. LEGACY.

If thine heart be dead.

When thou feelest thy heart dead, that it will not stirre to God or goodness, apply, Psal. 22.26. Your heart shall live for ever.

Prov. 3.21.22. Keep sound wisdome and discretion, so shall they be life unto thy soule.

Isai. 57.15. I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of contrite ones.

Amos

Amos 5. 4. Seeke the Lord and yee shall live.

When thou fearest thou shalt never overcome the deadnesse of thy heart, apply, Your heart shall live. Seek the Lord and ye shall live.

When thou hast got some life, and fearest the loosing of it, apply, Your hearts shall live for ever.

THE XXXVI. LEGACY.

If thou fearest falling away.

When thou fearest thou shalt fall away, and beginnest to decline, apply, 1. Cor. 1.8.
Christ shall also confirme you unto the end, that ye may be blameleſſe in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ. Psal. 16. 8. I have set the Lord alwayes before me:

because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Psal. 145. 14. The Lord upholdeth all that fall: and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. Psal. 91. 12. 14. The righteous shall flourish like the Palmetree. Hee shall grow like a Cedar in Lebanon. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age: they shall be fat and flourishing. Psal. 1. 13. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leafe also shall not wither. Ps. 31. 24. He shall establish thine heart. Job. 11. 15. 27. Thou shalt be stedfast, thine age shall be cleaver then the noone day, thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt bee as themorning. Iudg. 5. 31. They that love the Lord shall bee as the Sunne, when it goeth forth in his might. Now wee see that nothing can hinder the Sun in his might, but it chafeth away the darknesse and clouds before it, and ceaseth not till it hath runne his race:

so

so shall the child of God, for the Lord hath said it, we need not doubt of it. If thou fearest thine own weaknes, & the power of temptation, with the subtilty of Satan, apply, That God whose power and wisdome over-reacheth all other, hath said, He will confirme you to the end. He shall stablish thine heart, thy leafe shall not fade. Art thou hard pursued by sinne and Satan, apply, that God whose power and wisdome over-reacheth all, he hath said, He will stablish thee. If thou be ready to fall and faint, apply, The Lord upholderth all them that fall, and lifteth up all them that are ready to fall: thou shalt not slide. If thou fearest that thou bee kept from sinne, yet thy graces shall decay, apply, The righteous shall flourish as a Palme tree, and shall grow as a Cedar in Lebanon. They shall bring forth fruit: in their age, they shall be fat and flourishing; thou shalt bring forth fruit in season.

son: thou shalt bee stable, thine age shall appeare more cleare than noone day. Thou shalt shine as the morning.

THE XXXVII. LEGACY.

If thou art fallen.

Vhen wee are fallen and feare the Lord will leave us so, then apply,

Psal. 55. 22. Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustaine thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Psal. 37. 24. 28. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast downe, for the Lord upholdeh him with his hand. For the Lord loveth judgement, & forsaketh not his Saints, they are preserved for ever.

Ier. 32. 40. I will put my feare in their hearts, that they shall not depart
from

from me. When thou art fallen , and feeleſt a great load of ſinne or misery
upon thee , and no power to unloade thy ſelſe, thy graces ſo weak, that they will not help thee, and therefore thou thinkeft thy ſtate desperate , apply,
Though he fall, he ſhall not be caſt off, for the Lord putteth under his hand. Therefore though ſinne and misery be never ſo heavy to preſſe thee downe , yet that powerfull hand of God , when thou art at the lowest, being under thee, ſhall eaſily lift thee up, thou haſt
his paſtore, hee will not ſuffer thee to fall for ever.

THE XXXVIII. LEGACY.

When the Lord hath forsaken thee.

When the Lord hath forsaken thee in thine owne felling, and thou fearest he will not returne againe, apply, Isa. 54. 7, 8, 9, 10. For a small moment have I forsaken thee: but with great mercies will I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me; for as I have sworne that the waters of Noah shall no more goe over the earth: so have I sworne that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. For the

the Mountaines shall depart, and the Hils shall be removed: but my kindnesse shall not depart from thee; neither shall the covenant of my peace bee removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

Gen. 17.7. I will establish my covenant betwixt thee and me, an everlasting covenant to be a God unto thee.

Deut. 31.8. I will be with thee, I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee, feare not, neither be dismayed.

1. Kings 6. 13. I will not forsake my people.

2. Chron. 15.2. The Lord is with you while you be with him.

Iob. 8.20. Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man.

Iob 36.5. Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any.

Hos. 2.19,20. I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgement, and in lovingkindnesse, and in mercies.

mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulnesse.

THE XXXIX LEGACY.

When thou feelest thy vilenesse.

V Vhen thou feelest thy vilenesse, and fearest, the Lord will loath thee for it, apply, Levit. 26. 11. My soule shall not abhorre you.

Hosea 14. 4. I will love them freely, for mine anger is turned away from them.

Deut. 7. 13. I will love thee.

John 14. 21. 23. He that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest my selfe to him, my Father will love him, and wee will come unto him, and make our abode.

abode with him.

Ier. 32. 41. I will rejoice over them to doe them good.

When thou seest a multitude of sinnes, so that thou seemest most loath-some, apply, *My soule shall not loath
you.*

When thou seest nothing in thy selfe that should move him to love
thee, but all to the contrary, apply,
I will love them freely.

If thou fearest thy many sinnes will cause the Lord not to delight in thee,
apply, I will delight in thee.

If thou fearest, thy sinne will cause
the Lord to hide himselfe from thee,
apply, I will shew mine owne selfe unto him.

THE XL. LEGACY.

When thou feelest thy spirituall poverty.

Vhen thou feelest thy spirituall poverty, apply, Matth. 5. 3. Blessed are the poore in spirit; for theirs is the Kingdome of Heaven.

Ita. 66.2. To him will I look, saith the Lord, that is poore and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my words.

When thou feelest thy sinnes many, and thy graces very little, and therefore fearest that such a miserable creature as thou art, shalt not inherit heaven, apply, Blessed are the poore in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdome of Heaven.

If thou feareh the Lord will not looke upon thee, apply, To him will I looke, saith the Lord, that is of a contrite spirit.

THE XLI. LEGACY.

When thou art in a strait.

When thou art in a strait, and knowest not what to chuse, either in some truth, or in something that is to be done, that thou knowest not what to chuse, apply, Psal. 25. 22. Him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse. vers. 13. His soule shall dwell at ease.

P:ov. 3. 6. In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Prov. 16. 3. Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall bee established.

established.

Isai. 30. 21. And thine eare shall heare a word behind thee, saying, This is the way walke ye in it, when ye turne to the right hand, and when ye turne to the left.

Isai. 58. 11. The Lord shall guide thee continually.

Isai. 61. 8. I will cause their worke in truth.

Ier. 31. 9. I will cause them to walke
by the rivers of waters, in a straight way wherein they shall not stumble.

When thou doubt'st of some truth,
apply, He shall teach him the way that hee shall chuse, his soule shall dwell at ease, Thine eares shall heare a voice behind thee, saying, this is the way walke
in it. I will direct thy way in truth.

When thou art thinking what course to take, and fearest thou shalt not know what the Lord would have thee to doe, apply, Thy thoughts shall be

be derected, he shall direct thy wayes.

When thou fearest thy weakenesse will at some times carry thee astray, apply, The Lord will guide thee continually. The Lord will lead thee in a straight way, that thou shalt not stumble.

THE XLII. LEGACY.

If thou fearest Satan will cause thee to fall.

When thou fearest that Satan by his power and subtily will cause thee to fall, and art troubled with his temptations, apply, Gen. 3.15. He shall bruise his head, Therefore feare not, for Christ hath overthrowne all his power and subtily, that he cannot doe us any harme.

Psal.

Psal. 19.3,4. Surely hee shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler. He shall cover thee with his feathers: and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy Shield and Buckler.

Rom. 16.20. The God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

Doth Satan press thee with strong temptations, and fearest thou his power? apply, He shall bruise his head. Hee will cover thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers, his strength shall be thy Buckler.

Fearest thou his subtlety? apply, Hee shall deliver thee from the snare of the Fowler, and bruise his head, wherein lyes all his power and plots.

T H E

THE XLIII. LEGACY.

If thou canst not profit by the word God.

When thou canst not profit by the word of God, or his works of mercy, or afflictions, apply, Isai. 48.17. I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest goe.

Mat. 21.41. The Kingdome of God shall be taken from you, and given to a Nation bringing forth fruits thereof.

This is a promise, that the Gentiles shalld bring forth the fruits of the Gos-pell, therefore every believing Gen-tile may apply it.

THE XLIV. LEGACY.

If thou findest thy selfe un-like Gods people.

When thou findest thy selfe not like the people of God, either in heart or life, apply, I will give them one heart, and one way.

When thou seest thine heart not like the people of God, either in their affection to God, or his people, or ordinances, or in their sorrowing for sinne, apply, I will give them one heart.

When thou seest thy life and conversation not so holy as the people of God, apply, I will give them one way.

T H I

THE XLV. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have Gods blessing rest upon thee.

If thou wouldest have the blessing of the Lord to rest upon thee, apply, Psalme 5. 12. The Lord will blesse the righteous.

Deut. 7. 13. I will blesse thee.

Psalme 3. 8. Thy blessing is upon thy people.

Psal. 24. 5. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousnesse from the God of his salvation.

Psal. 115. 12. 13. The Lord will blesse us, he will blesse the house of Israel, hee will blesse the house of Aaron. Hee will blesse them that feare the Lord, both small and great.

THE

THE XLVI. LEGACY.

*If thou would'st be a blessing
in thy place.*

If thou would'st be a blessing in thy place, apply, Gen. 12. 2. I will bless thee, and thou shalt be a blessing.

Ezek. 34. 26. I will make them about my hill a blessing.

THE XLVII. LEGACY.

*If thou separatest from the wicked
in their corrupt worship.*

When thou separatest thy self from the wicked in their corrupt corrupt worship and manners, apply,

2. Cor. 6. 16, 17, 18. *I will dwell in them, and walke in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:
Wherefore come out from among them,
and be ye separate, saith the Lord; and touch not the uncleane thing, and I will receive you; and will be a Father unto you; and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.*

Thus farre of Grace; the next

T H E XLVIII. L E G A C Y.

A promise to be applyed in every ordinance.

IN every Ordinance thou maist apply this promise, Isai. 12.3. With joy shall you draw water out of the wels of salvation. Now in that it is said, out of the Wels of salvation, and not Well, I thinke we ought to apply it to every ordinance of God, so as wee are to use them with a comfortable persuasion, that wee shall receive abundance of grace from them. As the Lord promiseth we shall draw waters from out of them, wee shall not only use them, but draw from them with joy. Therefore when we pray, meditate, heare, conferre, fast, in every duty, ty, apply this promise, and you shall find him faithfull which promiseth.

THE XLIX. LEGACY.

When thou prayest.

When thou prayest apply these promises for the strengthening of thy faith, and for thy hearing. Mat. 7.7. Aske, and it shall be given you, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you.

Mat. 6.6. Pray to the Father which seeth in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward the openly.

Mat. 21,22. And all things whatsoever ye shall aske in prayer, believing ye shall receive it.

John 14.13,14. Whatsoever ye shall aske in my name I will doe it.

Ioh. 16. 24. Aske and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

John 15.7. Aske what you will, and it shall done unto you.

Isai. 65.24. Before they call, I will answer, and while they are yet speaking, I will heare.

Iob 22.7. Thou shalt make thy prayers unto him, and he shall heare thee, and if thou seek him, he will be found.

THE L. LEGACY.

When thou meditatest.

When thou meditatest, apply these promises, Prov. 14.22. Mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

Psal. 103. 17,18. The loving kindneſe

nesse of the Lord endureth for ever , to them which think upon his commandments to do them .

Philip. 4. 8, 9. Thinke on these things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seene in me, and the God of peace shall be with you.

If thou desirest mercy , or the truth of God to be for thy good , or the loving kindesse of the Lord to bee for e- ver towards thee, and that God which brings peace with him , to be with thee, then meditate on good things , & with such a meditation , as may stirre thee up to practise , & thē all these promises shall surely be performed to thee. And because meditation is an hard duty, therefore encourage thy selfe to it by the benefit it brings, and it being a way of God, he will give thee his Spirit to cause thee to walke in it.

THE LI. LEGACY.

In meditating, conferring, and reading Gods word.

IN meditating, conferring, and reading of the word of God , apply, Iosb.1.8. Let not this booke of the Law depart out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night . that thou maist observe to doe according to all that is written therein : for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then shou shalt have good successe.

THE

THE LII. LEGACY.

In reading of the word if thou understandest not.

IN reading of the word , if wee understand not, apply these promises,
Prov. i.23. I will poure out my Spirit unto you , I will make knowne my words unto you.

Prov. i.4. It gives subtily to the simple: to the young men knowledge and discretion.

Plal. 19. 8. The Commandement of the Lord is pure, inlightning the eyes.

THE LIII. LEGACY.

If thou canst not conferre.

When thou canst not speake
in conference to edification,
but feelest thine heart shut up, then apply, John 7.38. He that believeth on me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Prov. 10. 31. The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdome.

Prov. 12. 14. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mauth.

Isai. 32. 4. The tongue of the stamme-rers shall be ready to speake plainly.

Isai. 35. 6. The dumbe mans tongue shall sing.

*When thou art with the people of God, that thou maist receive good
from*

from them, and doe them good, apply, Prov. 13.20. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise. So apply, Prov. 12.
14. John. 7.38. Ezek. 47.12. *His fruit
shall be meat, and his leaves medicine.*

If thou findest thy soule stand in need of wisdome, keep company with the people of God which are the only wise people, and then thou hast the only sure promises of the Lord, thou shalt bee wise. If thou hungrest after good, resort to the righteous, and thou shalt bee satisfied with good things. If thou feele thy selfe dead, apply, *out of him shall flow rivers of water
of life*, for thy quickning. If thy soule be faint or sicke, apply, His fruit shall be meat and his leaves medicine. Let all this good which is gotten by their fellowship cause thee to delight in them, and take heed of forsaking the fellowship of the Saints.

When thou goest into company,

apply,

apply these promises to thy selfe, that thou maist be so to others, and hinder not thy selfe, by unbelief.

THE LIV. LEGACY.

When thou art to goe to the assemblies.

When thou art to goe to the assemblies , to participate in the ordinances, apply, In places where I record my name, I will come to thee and blesse thee. If thou wantest the Lord, or his blessing, goe to his house , and thou shalt find him Psalme 36.8,9. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatnesse of thine house , and thou shalt makethem drinke of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountaine of life, and in thy thy light shall we see light. Ps. 65. 4. We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thine holy Temple.

Psalme 83. 11. The Lord God is a Sun and shield, the Lord will give grace and glory, and no good thing will he withhold. Psalme 92. 13. 14. Those that he planted in the house of the Lord, shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in their old age: they shall bee fat and flourishing.

Psalme 128. 5. The Lord shall blesse thee out of Sion. Isai. 25. 6, 7, 8. In this mountain shall the Lord of Hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees, well refined. Therefore when his ordinances are corrupted with mens inventions, then thou maist presse him with this promise, that he will give us wine fined and purified, even his purest ordinances, and most comfortable to

Our hearts, as wine is. And when there is little nourishment, because their gifts are weake, urge him with this, that he hath promised to make us a feast of fat things full of marrow; for I take this promise to be meant of the Churches after Christ, vers. 7. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the the vaile that is spread over all nations. Thy sins that are too strong for thee, bring them to the Lord in his ordinances, and he will destroy them, though thou seeme to be covered with them, and they spread as a vaile upon thee, yet believe his promises, and all things shall be possible unto thee. Isai. 57.7. I will make them joyfull in mine house of prayer, their sacrifices shal be accepted at mine Altar. God will both give to them and accept from their sacrifices, as pleasing to him. 2. Chro. 20.20. Believe his Prophets, so shall ye prosper.

Prov. I.

Prov. 1.5. A wise man will heare, and will encrease learning, and a man of understanding shall attaine unto wise counsels. Prov. 4.10.12. Hearc and receive my sayings, and the yeares of thy life shall be many, when thou goest, thy steps shall not be strait, and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. Mark.
4.24. Vnto you that have, shall more be given. Isai. 55.3.11, 12. Incline your earcs and come unto me, heare and your soules shall live; and I will make an everlasting Covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. My words shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent
it. Therefore ye shall goe forth with joy, and be led forth with peace; the moun-taines and the hils shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. verf. 13.
Instead of the thorne shall come up the Firre tree, and instead of the bryer shall come

come up the Mirtle tree : this force shall the word have in thine heart for planting of Grace, and destroying of sinne.

Hos.14.7. They that dwell under his shadow shall returne, they shall revive as the corne, and grow as the vine, the sant thereof shall be as the vine in Lebanon. If thou wouldest returne, apply this, he shall returne. If thou beest de-cayed, apply this; They shall revive as the corne. If thou wouldest flourish in grace, apply, They shall flourish as the vine. If thou wouldest bee a sweet smelling savour in all places, apply,
The sent thereof shall be as the vine of Lebanon. Seeing all these good things come from the powerfull ordinances
of the Lord, let us give him no rest, till
he bestow these blessings upon us;
when the Pastour of the people promounceth the blessing, apply this promise, Num.6.27.I will blesse thee.

THE

THE LV. LEGACY.

*Wouldest thou enjoy the ordinances
of God, and a blessing upon them.*

Wouldest thou enjoy the ordinances of God, and a blessing upon them, apply,
Ier. 31. 14. I will satiate the soules of the Priests with fatnesse, and my people shall be satisfied with goodness.

Ier. 3. 15. I will give you Pastours according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Ezek. 34. 26, 27. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing, and I will cause the shoure to come downe in his season: there shall bee showers of blessing. And the tree of the field field shall yield her encrease, and the earth shall yield her fruit.

The promises are both for Pastor and people, the Pastor shall be able to teach with knowledge and understanding, his soule shall bee replenished with fattenesse, his teaching shall bee as seasonable shewres of blessing, that shall make the people fruitfull. The people must apply these promises, first that God would give them able Teachers, and that they may find their ministry blessed unto them, according to these promises. That they may bee fed with knowledge and understanding, that they may bee satisfied with goodnesse, and that their teaching may bee seasonable showers of blessing to make them fruitfull, as it is promised, that the trees shall yield their fruit. How much are Gods ordinances to be desired, by which he doth convey so many blessings unto his people?

people? Let us give him no rest, till he furnish Jerusalem with all her ordinances and officers.

THE LVI. LEGACY.

If thou enjoyest grace or meanes of Grace.

*I*f thou enjoyest glorious graces, or meanes of grace, and fearest the loosing of them, apply, Isai. 4.5.6.
Vpon all the glory shall be a defence. And there shall be a Tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storne, and from raine.

Isai. 27.3. I the Lord doe keep it, I will water it every moment: least any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

Isai. 33.16. His place of defence shall be

be the munition of Rockes , bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

Hast thou any glorious gracie or meanes of grace? Arme thy selfe with the power of God in his promises, for the Devill will use all his forces and subtilty, to deprive thee of them; hast thou a glorious Minister, and pure ordinance , or glorious graces beginne
to spring in thine heart , and seest no
meanes to defend them? apply , *Vpon
all thy glory he shall be at defense. His defence shall bee a munition of Rockes.*
Seest thou an heart of sinne in thy self,
or the rage of the wicked, that caulseth
thee to teare the losse of them? apply,
There shall be a covering for a shadow in the day for the heat. Doth the Devill raise up stormes? inwardly persecutions? apply, The defence and covering shall be a place of refuge, and covert for the storme, and for the raine. Fearest
thou the subtilty of thine enenies,
that

that unawares when thou thinkest not on them , they will surprise thee, and steale thy blessing from thee : apply, I the Lord doe keepe it night and day. If thou fearest God will not continue thus to thee, apply . I will water it ery moment; not one moment , but hee will be adding and nourishing: Bread shall be given him , and his waters shall be sure.

THE LVII. LEGACY.

When thou art banished from Gods ordinances.

When thou art banished from Gods ordinances , apply these promises for thy returne, Isai. 35.10. The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Sion with songs, songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtaine joy and gladnesse, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Ier. 3.14. I will take you two of a family, and one of a City, and will bring you to Sion. Deut. 30.4. If any of thine be driven out to the utmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will hee fetch thee. Ezek. 34.11,12,13.14,15,16. Behold I, even I will both search my sheep and seek them out. As a Sheepheard seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his Sheep that are scattered: so will I seek out my Sheep, and will deliver them out of all places, where they have been scattered in the cloudy and darke day. And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their owne land, and feed them upon the mountaines of Israel, by the rivers, and in

in all the inhabited places of the Country: I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountaines of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lye in a good fold, & in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountaines of Israel. I will feed my flock, & I wil cause them to lye down, saith the Lord God. I will seek that which was lost, and bring againe that which was driven away, and wil bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick.

If thou mournest for Gods ordinances, apply, Thou shalt not onely returne to Sion, but returne with joy, and sorrow shall flye away. If thou beest but one amongst many which desirest it, and fearest thou shalt bee left among them, apply, I will take you, one of a city, and two of a Tribe: though thou beest but one of a City that returneth to the Lord, he will bring thee to Sion from all the rest. If thou art farre removed moved from all meanes , and that the Lord hath done it for thy sin , apply, Though thou wert cast into the outmost part of the Heaven , thence will the Lord gather thee, and from thence will the Lord gather thee, & from thence will he take thee; he will deliver them from all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and darke day , and will feed them in good pastures , and will bring them to rest.

THE LVIII. LEGACY.

Whilſt thou art banish'd from Gods house.

WHILST thou art banished from Gods house , apply, Ezek.ii.16. I will be unto them as a little Sanctuary in the countries tries where they shall come. Isai. 40. 11.

He shall feed his flock like a sheepheard
he shall gather the Lambes with his arme, and carry them in his bosome, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

In thy banishment, at those houres
when thy soule was wont to be refreshed in the Sanctuary of God on the Sabbath, and at other times when thou findest thy selfe to stand in need either of defence, or nourishment, apply, I will be a Sanctuary unto you. He shall feed his flock as a sheepheard. If in this time thou feelest thy selfe very weake, apply, He shall gather his Lambs
in his armes, and carry them in his bo-some, and guide them with young : they cannot miscarry that are shut up in the bosome of God, nor feare, who are guided by him. Therefore though we be never so weake in our selves, yet here is our comfort, we are safe in our God:

God: O happy people, saved by the Lord.

THE LIX. LEGACY.

*When wicked sheepheards
are over us.*

When wicked sheepheards
are over us, then apply, Eze.
34.10. Thus saith the Lord
God, Behold, I am against the sheep-heards, and I will require my flock at their hands, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock: neither shall the sheepheards feed themselves any more.
for I will deliver my flock from their mouth; that they may not be meat for them. vers. 21. 22. Because ye have thrust with side, and with shoulder, and pushed
all the diseased with your hornes, till yee have

have scattered them abroad : Therefore will I save my flock , and they shall no more be a prey , and I will cause the wild beasts to cease out of the land .

When the sheepheards feed themselves , and are ready to devoure us , apply , The sheepheards shall not feed themselves any more . I will deliver my sheep from their mouthes , they shall no more devoure them .

When through their greatnessse and our weaknessse , they push us so with their hornes , that wee are scattered , both sheepheard from people , and one from another , apply , I will help my sheep , and they shall no more bespoyled ; I will cause the wild beasts to cease out of the land .

THE LX. LEGACY.

*When through wicked sheepheards
thou art come to great misery.*

When through evill sheep-heards we are come to great misery, apply, Ezek. 34.16.

*I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick. Isai. 30.20. Though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers bee removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers.
When through evill sheepheards thou art come to such an estate as thou fee-lest thy selfe to have lost God and goodnesse,*

goodnesse , and art driven away from all things that might help thee, apply, I will seek that which was lost , I will bring again that which was driven away. When thou art even breken with misery, and growne very weak, apply, I will bind up that which was broken, and strengthen that which was weake. When thy Teachers which should help thee in this estate , are forced to flye and hide themselves for feare of wicked sheepheards, apply, Thy teachers shall not bee removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy Teachers.

Thus farre of the ordinances of God , which are ordinary ; Now for the duty of Fasting, which is extraordinary.

THE LX.I LEGACY.

*When thou settest thy
selfe to fast.*

When thou settest thy selfe to fast, apply, Matth. 6.18. If thou fast in secret, thy Father which seeth in secret will reward thee openly.

Iam. 4.8.10. Draw nigh unto God, and he will draw nigh unto you. Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord and he shall lift you up.

Thus farre of the meanes of Grace. The next promises are when wee suffer persecution for well-doing, for all that will live godly must suffer persecution: therefore strengthen thy selfe with these promises.

T H E

THE LXII. LEGACY.

If thou art railed upon for well-doing.

If thou art railed upon for well-doing, apply, I. Pet. 4. 14. If yee be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are yee, for the Spirit of God, and of glory resteth upon you.

Mat. 5. 11, 12. Blessed are yee, when men revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evill against you falsely for my sake. Rejoyce and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.

THE LXIII. LEGACY.

If thou are persecuted.

When they persecute thee any other wayes even unto death, apply, Mat. 10. 39. He that looseth his life for my sake, shall find it. Matth. 5. 10. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the Kingdome of Heaven. When we loose any earthly blessing for Gods cause, apply, Matth. 19. 24. Every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my names sake, shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

This is the greatest (and yet lawfull) usury of all others, to part with one

one outward blessing, and to receive an hundred for it; to loose a miserable life, and to enjoy eternall life; to suffer a short time, and to have a great reward in heaven; to be disgraced, and to have the Spirit of glory rest upon us. Therefore when thou art railed upon, apply, Blessed am I, the Spirit of glory rests upon me, therefore they cannot make me vile. Art thou any way persecuted? apply, Theirs is the Kingdomc of Heaven; great is your reward in Heaven. Take they thy life? apply, He that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. Take they away any earthly blessing? thou shalt receive an hundred fold at this present; therefore if Usurers gladly let out their money, that hope to receive but eight in the hundred, bee ashamed of thy selfe, that thou shouldest not give one for an hundred, when thou hast the promise of him that never failed to performe.

THE LXIV. LEGACY.

In partaking with Gods people in suffering.

In partaking with Gods people in suffering, that thou maist be partaker of their comforts, apply, 1. Cor. 1. 6. As you are partakers of the sufferings: so shall ye be also of the consolation.

THE LXV. LEGACY.

When thou art called to defend the truth.

When thou art called forth to defend the truth, apply, Matth. 10. 19. When they deliver deliver you up, take no thought, how, or what yee shall speake, for it shall be given you in that same houre what yee shall speake.

Luke 21.15. I will give you a mouth and wisdome which all your adversaries shall not bee able to gainesay nor resist.

Math. 10.32. Whosoever confesseth me before men, him will I confess before my Father which is in heaven. When thou fearest thou shalt not be able to speake in defence of the truth, apply, It shall be given thee, though thou hast it not before, in that houre, what thou shalt say. If thou fearest the learning of thine adversaries, and thine owne simplenesse, apply, I will give the not onely a mouth, but also wisdome, where against they shall not be able to speake. If thou want courage, embolden thy selfe with this, Christ will confess thee before his father.

THE LXVI. LEGACY.

*If thou wouldest bring forth sea-
sonable fruit for every estate.*

If thou wouldest bring forth seasonable fruit for every estate, and for every duty, apply, Psal. 1.3. Thou shalt as a tree which bringeth forth his fruit in season. Ezek. 47.12. Hee shall bring forth fruit according to his moneths. If thou art to speake or pray,
or doe any duty, that thou maist doe
it seasonably, and have fitting words and thoughts, apply, Thou shalt bring forth fruit in season. So in every estate, prosperity or aduersity, that thou maist bring forth the fruits of it, apply, They shall bring forth fruit in season according to their moneths.

Thus

Thus farre about spirituall things.
The next promises, are about earthly things: and because Children are the most excellent, therefore I will begin with them.

THE LXVII. LEGACY.

If thou hast children.

IF thou hast children, apply, Ps. 112.
2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth:
the generation of the just shall be blessed.

Deut. 7. 13. He will blesse the fruit of thy womb. Gen. 17. 7. I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations
for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Isa.
44. 3. 4. I will powre out my Spirit upon

on thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: and they shall spring up as among the grasse, as willowes by the water-courses. If thou desirest grace and Gods blessing for thy children, apply, I will powre my spirit and blessing upon thy seed. If thou wouldest have them grow up in it, apply, They shall grow as among the grasse, and as the willowes by the water courses. If thou wouldest have them in covenant with thy selfe, thy God to be theirs, apply, I will make an everlasting covenant with thee, to be God to thee, and to thy seed after thee. Desirest thou outward things for them? apply, His seed shall bee mighty upon earth.

THE

THE LXVIII. LEGACY.

If thou wantest children.

If thou wantest children, apply,
Deut. 7. 14. Thou shalt be blessed above all people, there shall neither be male nor female barren among
you. Deut. 28.11. The Lord shall make thee plentifull in the fruit of thy body.
Psal. 128.3. Thy wife shall be as a fruit-full vine by the sides of thine house, thy children like Olive plants, round about thy table. vers. 4. 6. Lo ethus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord.
Thou shalt see thy childrens children.

If thou hast conceived, apply this promise for keeping of it, Exod. 23.
26. There shall none cast their young, nor be barren in thy land. This, and all other

ther promises of earthly things, are to
to be applyed so faire as is good for us: we are not to doubt of them.

THE LXIX. LEGACY.

If the Lord deny thee children.

If the Lord deny thee children, apply, Isai. 56.5. To them will I give mine house, and within my walls a place and a name better then of Sonnes
and of Daughters, I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

THE

THE LXX. LEGACY.

*If thou wouldest have a comfortable
and holy use of thy habitation.*

If thou wouldest have the comfortable and holy use of thine habitation, apply, Job. 5. 24. Thou shalt know that thy Tabernacle shall be in peace, and thou shalt visit thine habitation, and not sinne.

Psalme 91. 10. There shall no evill befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. Prov. 14. 11. The Tabernacle of the upright shall flourish. Prov. 12. 7. The house of the righteous shall stand.

*If thou wouldest prosper in thine house, apply, *Peace shall be in it. No plague shall come neer it. It shall flourish.

If

If thou wouldest have it continue so,
apply, It shall stand. That they may not be a snare to thee , but that thou maist
use thy blessing, and not sinne, apply,
*Thou shalt visit thy habitation, and not
sinne.*

THE LXXI. LEGACY.

*If thou wouldest have thy going out,
and comming in blessed.*

*I*f thou wouldest have thy comming
in and going out blessed , apply, Deut. 28. 6. Blessed shalt thou be
when thou commest in , and blessed shalt thou bee when thou goest out, Psalme 121. 8. The Lord shall pre- servethe going out, and thy comming
in, from this time forth , and even for evermore.

When

When thou goest out, if thou wouldest have heavens and earth, and all creatures blessed to thee, and bee made able to make the spirituall use of them, apply, Blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out, and when thou comest in. The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy comming in. If thou wouldest have the continuance of it, apply, from this time forth for evermore.

T H E LXXII. L E G A C Y.

When thou eatest or enjoyest any blessing, that it may satisfy, and be sanctified.

When thou eatest or enjoyest any blessing, that it may satisfy, thee and thou maist have

have the sanctified use of it, apply, Ioel 2. 26. Ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord our God.

That thy meat and outward blessings may give thee content, and satisfy thee, apply, Thou shalt eat and be satisfied.

That thou maist have the sanctified
use of it, apply, Thou shalt praise the Lord.

THE LXXXIII. LEGACY.

*When thou takest thy rest
at night, &c.*

When thou takest thy rest at night, apply, Prov. 3. 24.
When thou lyest downe thou shalt not bee afraid: yea thou shalt lye down,

down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Job 11.19. Also thou shalt lye down, and none shall make thee afraid.

If thou art troubled with feares of the night, apply, Thou shalt not be afraid.

When thou takest thy rest, apply,
None shall make thee afraid.

If thou art troubled with any thing that breaks thy rest, apply, *Thy rest
shall be sweet.*

THE LXXIV. LEGACY.

*When thou puttest thy hand
to any worke.*

When thou puttest thine hand
to any worke, that it may be blessed, apply, Deut.28.
12. The Lord shall blesse all the work of thine

thine hand. Deut. 30. 9. The Lord thy God will make thee plentious in every work of thine hand. The Lord will not only blesse some of thy works, but every one; therefore in every worke send up short prayers for the claiming of them, and so at our going out, and comming in, or sleeping, renew these promises upon thy selfe, by faith applying them, and by prayer suing for them.

THE LXXV. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have thine outward blessings blessed.

IF thou wouldest have thy outward blessings blessed of God, apply, Deut. 28. 4, 5. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground,

ground, and the fruit of thy cattell,
the increase of thy kine, and the flocks
of thy sheep. Blessed shall bee thy basket and thy store. Deut. 7. 13. 14.
The Lord will also bleſſe the fruit of thy wombe, and the fruit of thy land, thy corne, and thy wine, and thine oyle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. There shall be neither male nor female barren among you, or among your cattell. That thy goods and thine house may be blessed, apply, Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. If thou beeſt in debt, apply, Deut. 28. 12.
Thou shalt lend unto many, and shalt not borrow.

THE

THE LXXVI. LEGACY.

If thou desirest to enjoy the labours of thine hands.

If thou desirest to enjoy the labours of thine hands, apply, Isai. 65. 21, 22, 23. They shall build houses and inhabit them, they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat: for as the dayes of a tree are the dayes of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the works of their hands. They shall not labour in vaine, nor bring forth for trouble. Psal. 128. 2. Thou shalt eat the Labour of thine hands.

THE

THE LXXVII. LEGACY.

If thou art diligent in thy calling.

When thou art diligent in thy calling, apply, Prov. 12. 14.
24. The recompence of a mans hands shall be rendered unto him. The hand of the diligent shall beare rule. When thou enjoyest that thou hast laboured for, apply, Psalme 128. 2. Thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

T H E LXXXVIII. L E G A C Y.

When thou seest wicked men follow unsatisfying things with restlesse desires and thou desirest content.

When thou seest the wicked to bee carried with restlesse desires, hungrying and thirsting after those things which satisfy them not, and thou desirest content, apply, Isai. 65.13, 14. Thus saith the Lord, behold my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty, behold my servants shall rejoice, but yee shall be ashamed: Behold my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but yee shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howle for vexation of spirit.

THE

THE LXXIX. LEGACY.

*If thou fearest thou shalt loose
by following the Lord.*

If thou fearest thou shalt loose by following the Lord, apply Psalme 37.9.11.18,19. Those that waite upon the Lord shall inherit the earth, their inheritance shall be for ever: they shall not be ashamed in the evill time. They shall inherit the earth, and delight themselves in the abundance of peace. Psalm. 112.3. Wealth and riches shall bee in his house. Job. 22, 23, 24. Thou shalt be built up, & thou shalt lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of of the brookes verl. 25. Yea, the Almighty shall bee thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

F

Gen. 15.

Gen. 15. 1. I am thy exceeding great reward. Fearest thou the losse of thy land, apply, Thou shalt inherit the earth, their inheritance shall be for ever. Thou shalt possess the earth. Doe others trouble thee? apply, They shall have their delight in the multitude of peace. Art thou poore, or fearest the losse of thy goods? apply, Riches and treasure shall be in his house. Art thou oppressed by the wicked? apply, The Almighty shall be thy defence.

THE LXXX. LEGACY.

*When thou hast lost blessings
by sinne.*

When thou hast lost blessings by sinne, apply these promises for their recovery, Joel.

2.24,25,26. The floores shall be full of Wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oyle, and I will restore to you the yeares that the Locust hath eaten, the canker-worme, the caterpiller, and the palme-worme: and yee shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the Lord. Deut.30.5. I will multiply you above your fathers.

THE LXXXI. LEGACY.

If thou fearest losse of thy good name.

If thou fearest the losse of thy good name, apply, Job.5.21. Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue. Job.11.15. Thou shalt lift up thy face without spot. Psal. 37.6. He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgement as the noone day. Prov.

10.7. The memory of the just is blessed.

Fearest thou the wicked will take away thy good name, apply, Thou shalt bee hid from the scourge of the tongue. Cast they blots upon thee:
apply, Thou shalt lift up thy face without spot. Seek they to darken the light of thy holy life? apply, He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgement as the noone day.

THE LXXXII. LEGACY.

If the world despise thee, &c.

If the World despise thee, comfort
thy selfe with these promises, Exo.
19.5. Ye shall be Gods peculiar treasure above all people. I. Sam. 3.30. Those
that

that honour me will I honour , saith the Lord.Ps.91.14. I will set him on high, because he hath knowne my name. Psal. 112. 9. His horne shall bee exalted with honour. John 12. 26. If any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Prov. 4. 7, 8, 9. Get wisdome, exalt her , and Shee shall promote thee, Shee shall bring thee to honour when thou doft embrace her; Shee shall give to thine head an ornament of grace,a crowne of glory shall Shee deliver to thee.

When the world counts thee as the off-scouring of the world , vile, nought-worth: apply, He shall be Gods chiefe treasure above all people. Doth the world debase thee?apply, The Lord will exalt thee. The Father will honour him.

THE LXXXIII. LEGACY.

*When thou art in want for
soule or body.*

When thou art in any want for soule or body, apply, Psalme 34. 9. 10. There is no want to them that feare him. The young Lions doe lack and suffer hunger, but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. Psalme 84. 11. No good thing will hee withhold from them that walke uprightly. Mat. 6. 33. Seek yee first the Kingdome of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. Art thou troubled with distracting cares for outward things? apply, Seek the Kingdome of Heaven and his righteousness, and and all other things shall bee cast upon you. Fearest thou that thou shalt bee overpressed with want? apply, Those that seek the Lord, shall want no good thing. No good thing will bee withhold from them that walke uprightly.

THE LXXXIV. LEGACY.

In liberall giveing.

In liberall giving apply these promises, Prov. 11. 25. The liberall soule shall be made fat, and hee that watred shall be watered also himselfe.

Prov. 19. 17. Hee that hath pitty on the poore, lendeth to the Lord: and that which he hath given will hee pay him again.

Math. 6. 4. Give in secret, and thy Father himselfe shall reward thee openly.

ly.2.Cor.9.6.10.11. He which soweth bountifully shall reap bountifully. He that ministreth seed to the sower, doth minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sowne, and increase the fruits of your righteousness, being enriched in every thing to all bountifulnesse.

Isai.58.10.11. If thou draw out thy soule to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soule: then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darknesse bee as the noone day.

And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soule in drought, and make fat thy bones, and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of waters, whose waters faile not.

When thou givest to the people of God, and entreatest them kindly, apply, Matth.10,41.42. He that receiveth a Prophet in the name of a Prophet, shall receive a Prophets reward: and he that that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous mans reward. And whosoever shall give to drinke unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water onely in the name of a Disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise loose his reward.

THE LXXXV. LEGACY.

If sicknesse be among us.

If sicknesse be amongst us, apply, Exod. 23.52. I will take sicknesse away from the midst of thee.

Psalme 43.3. The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

Deut. 7.15. And the Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evill diseases of Ægypt upon thee.

If the plague bee among us, apply, Psalme 91.3.6.7. Surely hee shall deliver thee from the noysome pestilence. Thou shalt not be afraid of the pestilence that walketh in darknesse, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noone day, A thousand shall fall at thy side, and tenne thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

Art thou sick? apply, The Lord wil strengthen him upon the bed of sorrow: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

Art thou there where the sick are? apply, I will take away all sickness from the midst of thee.

Fearest thou the pestilence? apply, I will deliver thee from the noysome pestilence.

THE

THE LXXXVI. LEGACY.

If thou fearest death.

If thou fearest death, apply, Isai. 57.
2. He shall enter into peace, they shall rest in their beds. None feares to goe to bed, when they know they shall rest being weary. This resting is more sure and lasting for ever. Rom. 8. 11. He that raised up Christ from the dead, shall quicken our mortall bodies. Therefore wee must not thinke of it but as a better life given by the spirit of God.

THE

THE LXXXVII. LEGACY.

If thou fearest untimely death.

If thou fearest untimely death, apply, Job. 5.26. Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corne commeth in, in his season. Exo. 23.26. The number of thy dayes will I fulfill. Psal. 91. 16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. Psal. 41. 2. The Lord will preserve him and keep him alive, and he shall be blessed upon the earth.

Hast thou many enemies, and fearest the losse of thy life by them? apply, the number of thy dayes will I fulfill: the Lord will preserve him and keep him alive, therefore man cannot shorten it one day.

Fearest

Fearest thou that thou shalt either live too long, or dye too soone? apply,
Thou shalt goe to thy grave in a full age,
as a rick of corne commeth in due season
into the barne.

THE LXXXVIII. LEGACY.

If thou fearest hurt by any of the creatures.

IF thou fearest hurt by any of the creatures, apply, Gen. 9.2. The fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowle of the ayre, upon all that moveth upon the earth, upon all the fishes of the sea, into your hand are they delivered, Job. 5.23. Thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beast of the field shall be at peace with thee.

THE

THE LXXXIX. LEGACY.

When thou hast a troubled heart:

When thine heart is troubled either for soule or body, apply, Phil.4.7. The peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds. Psal. 29.11. The Lord will blesse his people with peace.

Is thine heart troubled with many temptations of Satan, or with feares of sinne and misery? apply, The peace of God shall preserve your hearts. Hast thou many troubles outwardly? apply, The Lord shall blesse his people with peace.

THE

THE XC. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have thy purpose to prosper.

IF thou wouldest have thy purposes to prosper, apply, Job.22.28. Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy wayes.

Psal. 1. 3. Whatsoever he doth shall prosper. Psal. 37.5. Commit thy wayes unto the Lord: trust also in him, and he shall bring it to passe.

When thou often purposest to doe good both for thy soule and body, and yet findest thy purposes broken, apply, Thou shalt decree a thing, and the Lord shall establish it unto thee. He shall bring it to passe. When thou art in doing

ing of any thing, apply, Whatsoever he doth shall prosper.

THE XCII. LEGACY.

When thou art called to a great worke.

When thou art called to a great work, wherein thou shalt have great opposition, apply, Deut. 31. 8. The Lord he it is that doth goe before thee, he will be with thee, he will not faile thee, neither forsake thee: feare not, neither be dismayed. 2. Chro. 16. 9. The Lord will shew himselfe strong in the behalfe of them whose heart is perfect towards him: Psal. 91. 11, 12, 13. Hee shall give his Angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy wayes: They shall beare thee up in their hands, hands, least thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the Lyon and Adder: the young Lyon and Dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

It matters not what bee the lets oppose us, when the Lord goes before us, hee will easily beat them downe: nor what strength resists such, as hee hath promised to shew his strength for: nor how many bee our dangers, when his Angels have charge over us to keep us. Therefore goe on in the worke, and feare not the issue, being strengthened by the promises of him, that never faileth his.

T H E

THE XCII. LEGACY.

In times of danger.

IN the time of danger, apply, 1. Sam. 2. 9. The Lord will keep the feet of his Saints. Prov. 1. 33. Who so harkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall bee quiet from feare of evill. Job. 11. 18. 19 Thou shalt be secure, because there is hope, yeathou shalt digge about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety, also thou shalt lye down, and none shall make the afraid. Psal. 125. 1, 2. They which trust in the Lord, shall be as mount Sion which cannot bee removed, but abideth for ever. As the mountaines are round about Ierusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth, even for ever.

Psal.

Psal. 121.3,4,5. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: hee that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper, the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. Seeing the Lord is our keeper, wee need not feare the danger.

T H E X C I I I . L E G A C Y .

When thou art in great trouble
&c.

When thou art in great trouble, apply, Isai.43.2. When thou passest through the waters I will be with thee, and through the Rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burnt, neither shall the flame kindle kindle upon thee. vers. 20. I will give waters in the wildernesse , and Rivers in the desart , to give drinke to my people, my chosen. Psal. 32. 6,7. Surely in the floods of great waters they shall no comenigh unto him. Thou art my hidyn place, thou shalt preserve me from trou ble; I thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliverance.

When thou seest thy selfe compas sed with many troubles, and beginnest to feare, apply, I will be with thee, they shall not overflow thee. In the fire of affliction, thou shalt not onely not bee burnt , but the flame shall not kindle upon thee, the greatest trouble shall doe thee the least harme, for God be ing with thee, will bring thee out , as he did Israel through the sea , and the three children out of the fire, with not so much as the favour of fire about them: so shall not so much as the fa vour of evill bee upon his , but hee will

will compass them about with songs of deliverance.

THE XCIV. LEGACY.

When thou seemest to be forgotten in affliction.

WHEN thou seemest to be forgotten in affliction, apply, Psal. 9.9.18. The Lord also will be a refnge for the oppressed: a refuge in times of trouble. For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poore shall not perish for ever.

Isai.48.50. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the Sonne of her wombe? yea, they may forget, yet will not I forget thee. Psal. 103. 9. He will not alwaies wishes chide, neither will he keep his anger forever. Lam. 3.31,32. The Lord will not cast off forever. But though he cause grieve, yet will he have compassion, according to the multitude of his mercies.

THE XCV. LEGACY.

When thou fearest to dye in misery.

When thou fearest thou shalt end thy dayes in misery, apply, Iob. 36. 11. They shall spend their dayes in prosperity, and their yeares in pleasures.

THB

THE XCVI. LEGACY.

When thy sorrowes grow great.

When thy sorrowes grow great, apply, Job. 11.16.
Thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that passe away. Job. 8.20.21. Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing, Psal. 27.14. Be of good courage, and hee shall strengthen thy heart, Psal. 112. 4. Vnto the upright there riseth light in the darknesse, Psal. 126.5.6. They that sow in teares shall reape in joy. THE XCVIII. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have deliverance out of trouble.

If thou wouldest have deliverance out of trouble, apply, Psal. 149.4.
He will beautifie the meek with salvation: or, Hee will make the meek glorious by deliverance

Psal. 34. 17. 19. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth: and delivereth them out of all their troubles. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

Iob. 5. 17, 18, 19. Happy is the man whom God correcteth, for hee maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole. He shall deliver thee in sixe troubles, in seaven there shall shall no evill touch thee. Psal. 50. 15.

Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

When thou art in many troubles,
and fearest thou shalt never get out of all, apply, The Lord will deliver the out of all. If the Lord hath delivered thee
once or twice, and thou fearest he will not continue so still, as often as thou fallest into troubles, apply, He shall deliver thee in sixe troubles, and the sea-venth it shall not touch thee.

THE XCIX. LEGACY.

If thine enemies prevaile.

WHEN thine enemies prevaile,
apply, Psal. 125. 3. *The rod
of the wicked shall not rest*

upon the lot of the righteous : least the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity : Psal. 18. 3. I will call upon the Lord : so shall I be saved from mine enemies . 1. Sam. 2. 10. The adversaries of the Lord shall bee broken to pieces : the eyes of the wicked shall faile , their refuge shall perish , their hope shall bee sorrow of mind . Job. 11. 20. Deut. 28. 7. The Lord shall causethine enemies that rise up against thee , to be smitten before thy face .

Seest thou many to rise up to trouble thee ? apply , thine enemies that rise against thee , shall fall before thy face . Hope they to prevaile against thee ? apply , their hope shall be sorrow of mind : Have they great meanes to cause them to prosper ? apply , their refuge shall perish . Have they long oppressed thee ? apply , the rod of the wicked shall not alwayes rest upon the lot of the righteous . Seest thou no meanes to get from them ?

them? say with the Prophet David I will call upon the Lord, so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

THE C. LEGACY.

*That thou maist be delivered,
and thine enemies afflicted*

That thou maist bee delivered,
and thine enemies afflicted in thy stead, apply, Deut. 30.7.

The Lord thy God will put all these car-ses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecute thee. Prov.
21.18. The wicked shall be a ransome for the righteous, and the transgressour for the upright.

THE CL. LEGACY.

If thou wouldest have thine
enemies destroyed, &c.

If thou wouldest have thine enemies destroyed, apply, Job. 8. 22. They that hate thee shall be cloathed with shame, and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

Isai. 41. 11. 13. 15. Behold all they which were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded, they shall be as nothing, and they that strive with thee shall perish: for I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not, I will help thee. Thou shalt thresh the mountaines and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaffe, by which mountaines and hills,
is

is meant the greatest enemies. 1. Sam. 2.30. They that despise me shal be lightly esteemed. These promises are to be applyed by us, as they are the enemies of God and his Gospell, and ours for his sake.

THE CII. LEGACY.

If the wicked plot against thee.

IF the wicked plot against thee, apply, Psal.37.12. The wicked plot against the just; their sword shall enter into their owne heart, their bow shall be broken. The Lord shall laugh at him. Isai.54.15. The enemies shall surely gather themselves together against thee, but not by me; whosoever shall gather themselves together against thee shall fall.

THE CIII. LEGACY.

In the troubles of the Church.

IN the troubles of the Church, apply, Psal. 128.6. Thou shalt see peace upon Israel, vers. 5. Thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the dayes of thy life. Ier. 31. 12. Thou shalt come and sing in the height of Sion: when thou hast applyed the promises, and used all the meanes, and yet findest not thy selfe filled with God, as thou desirest, then comfort thy selfe with this, Yet a little while, and when thou awakest, thou shalt bee satisfied with his Image. Psal. 17. 15.

THE

THE CIV. LEGACY.

For the fall of Antichrist.

Because the time draweth neere
of the fall of Antichrist, we must stirre up our selves to hasten the Lord by earnest prayers, and for the strengthening of our faith, apply these promises, Rev. 17.16. And the tenne hornes which thou sawest upon the Beast,
these shall hate the Whore, and shall make her desolate and naked and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her with fire, Rev. 18. 8. 21. Therefore shall her plagues come in in one day, death and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. And a mighty Angell tooke up a great stone, like a great Milstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great City Babylon be throwne down, and shall be found no more at all. Even so come Lord Iesus, and hasten this happy day.

THE CV. LEGACY.

For the calling of the Iewes.

Seeing the Lord hath promised many glorious things to the Iewes with much grace and peace, both to the Iewes and Gentiles at their conversion; when the remaine tribes shall bee reunited to the two, which never yet was, let us never give him rest till hee set up Ierusalem the praise of the world, and for the strengthening of us in prayer, apply, these promises:

promises: Ezek. 37.21,22. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Israel, from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their owne land: and I will make them one nation, in the land upon the mountaines of Israel: and one King shall be King to them all, and they shall be no more two Nations, neither shall they be divided into two Kingdomes any more at all. Jer. 3.18. In those dayes the house of Iudah shall walke with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the North to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers: Isai. 60.2,3,4,5. 15. 16. The Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to the light, and Kings to the brightness of thy rising, thy sonnes shall come from farre, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

then thou shalt see and flow together, and thine heart shall feare and be enlarged, because the Sea shall be converted unto thee: the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternall excellency, a joy of many generations: Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of Kings. Isai. 62. 2, 3. 49. The Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all Kings thy glory, and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name, thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royall diadem in the hand of thy God. Isai. 61. 4, 5, 6. They shall build the old wasts, they shall raise up the former desolations, they shall repayre the wast cities, the desolations of many generations. And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sonnes of the alien shall be

be your plowmen, and your vine-dressers, but ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord: men shall call you the ministers of our God, ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves. Isai. 48, 22, 23. Thus saith the Lord: Behold, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people, and they shall bring thy sonnes in their armes, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders, and Kings shall be thy nursing Fathers, and their Queenes thy nursing Mothers, they shall bow downe to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick vp the dust of thy feet.

A Post-script sent from the Authour.

THese promises I have observed: many more there be of most excellent use, but because they need opening for the understanding of them, I would not set them downe, least through the shalownesse of my understanding I should wrong the precious promises: but I picked out the most plaine, and those that I found of continuall use for soule and body, which I have found much good by, for the promises are our Legacies bequeathed to us in the will of our Father, and wee are to claime them, as wee stand in need of any of them: and surely that God which would not have children wronged in that which is bequeathed to them in the will of their Fathers, much lesse will hee withhold that which his Sonne hath bequeathed to us in his last will, which hee sealed with his blood, Therefore let us sue for them, for he saith, hee will bee sought to performe them them to us. And when thou applyest any promise, seeke unto the condition, and labour to keep it, and doubt not of the performance of what is promised, for he is both able and faithfull that hath promised.

POSTSCRIPT,
TO ALL TRVE

B E L E E V E R S .

Gracious Beleevers,

Knowing you to be the only heires
of those rich and precious promises, which it hath pleased our gracious Father freely to give unto his freely beloved Children:
I have presumed without your knowledge,
to bequeath unto you a fatherlesse child
brought forth into the world without the parents knowledge, hoping you will not be unwilling to let it passe under your favourable protection. For the subject matter of it, it is very beautifull, and of such use, as no child of God can passe to Heaven without it, and in that regard, it shall bee no shame unto you whom the Lord hath honoured with the grace of believing, to accept of this small Treatise from one that desires your prospering in your soules and bodies. There is no blemish in this that I dedicate unto you, but such as came by the hands of the unskilfull bringer forth of it, which only minded their own good in it. And weighing dayly the beauty of it, and the sweet refreshing strength which flowed from it, for the overcomming of those three deadly enemies, the Devill, Sin, and the World, they desired that God would bee pleased to move the minds of some of his most skilfull workmen, to put to their hands to frame a more perfect work upon so perfect a subject, and to give a more comely forme, to this so beautifull a subject, and till then they intended to smoother in their bosomes the beauty of this, rather then to bring it forth with the blemishes of their unskilfulness. But the good that may be gayned by it being unutterable, I hope grace in the hearts of Gods people will cause them, like the Bee, to suck out the sweet and nourishing vertue of these fragrant flowers, that grow here and there in the garden of Gods word, and not with discontent to cast away this pleasant posy gathered out of the celestiall Eden of the sacred Scriptures, because an unskilfull hand, and indeed unworthy, hath bound them up together, not so orderly as might please the curious eye of man, nor their owne, neither was it their ayme so to doe. If any gaine any good by it, the gatherer of these sweet flowers together, neither deserves nor desires thanks, for they intended it to none but to themselves, and some private friends, whose importunity wrung some copies from them, and now without their consent have published it. And now since it is published and cannot bee stopped, the Lord cause it to worke in all his, according to that which he hath given the promises for to work in the hearts of his people, even to make them partakers of the divine nature. 2. Pet. 1. 4. And as a meanes to make them to take every day a little posy from the rest, one of the promises gathered together, and apply it to thy selfe, see how thou standest in need of it, and every word in it, and then apply it to thy selfe by faith, and let it stirre thee up to goe to God in prayer for the accomplishment of them unto thee, then waite in the diligent use of all meanes for the gayning of them, and you shall find God not only making you heires of promises, but you shall be comfortable possessours of those many good things which God hath promised to Beleevers. The more you meditate, and the oftner you lay upon them, the more good wil you see in them, and find flow from them. I say no more, but I doubt not, but your experiences of good by these promises will be more then I can make knowne unto you. I desire the God of mercies, our loving father, in our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom all the promises are Yea and Amen, to make you dayly find experimentally, the truth of all his gracious promises.

now become a companion with Angels

Postis of heaven, whom Jacob saw flying up and down the Ladder : these are the Protectors of the godly, whose aid God promised the Israelites ; Behold, I send an Angel before thee to Exod.23.20. keep thee in the way, and to bring thee to the place which I have prepared. These are the Guardians of Gods children of whom our Saviour told his Disciples, that in Heaven their Angels always behold the face of his Father : these are the armies of God, who meeting Jacob in his journey, he said, This is Gods host : these are the spirits and Ministers of God, whom David describing by the purity of their substance, and readiness of their obedience, Psal.104.4. be calls the Angels spirits, and his Minister; a flame of fire. They are shining and singing stars, winged charisters, nimble Posts of heaven, Protectors of the godly, guardians of children, the armies of the Almighty, the spirits and Ministers of the great Jechovah.

What blessed company is this we shall enjoy in heaven ? there is nothing in them but is amiable, nothing in them but is admirable : O that this clay of ours should come to dwell with those incorporeal spirits ! and yet see here a man, a thief, (the worst of men :) by his confession, and contrition, and faith in Christ,
